CAPITAL FEARS "OVERT ACT:" WILSON AWAITS FULL FACTS

SENATE VOTES INDORSEMENT OF PRESIDENT

Ballots 78 to 5 to Uphold Wilson as the Crisis Moves Nearer.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—[Special.]—With the menace of war stalking nearer to America, the senate today formally indorsed the action of President Wilson in severing diplomatic relations with Germany.

It was almost a unanimous indorsement. The vote was 78 to 5, and some of those who cast their ballots for the resolution said they did so for the sake of national unity.

The resolution was offered by Senator Stone. Its consideration brought forth many nonpartisan pledges of support of the administration, but elicited some acrimonious disputes on the Democratic side of the chamber.

The five senators who voted against it were Gronna of North Dakota, La Follette of Wisconsin, and Works of California, Republicans, and Kirby of Arkansas and Vardaman of Mississippi, Democrats.

TEXT OF THE RESOLUTION.

The text of the resolution follows:

"Whereas, The president has, for the reasons stated in his address deliverd to the congress in joint session on Feb. 3, 1917, severed diplomatic relations with the imperial German government by the recall of the American ambassador at Berlin and by handing his passports to the German ambassador at Washington; and

"Whereas, Notwithstanding this severance of diplomatic intercourse the president has expressed his desire to avoid conflict with the imperial German government; and,

"Whereas, The president declared in this said address that if in his judgment an occasion should arise for further action in the premises on the part of the government of the United States he would submit the matter to the congress and ask the authority of congress to use such measures as he might deem necessary for protection of American seamen and people in the prosecution of their peaceful and legitimate errands on the high seas;

"Therefore be it resolved by the senate—That the senate approves the action taken by the president as set forth in his address delivered before the joint session of congress as stated above."

"REPEL FOREIGN DICTATION."

"Plainly we are facing a situation in which unhappily our diplomatic relations are sorely strained with respect to some of the belligerent European nations," Mr. Stone said in urging the adoption of his resolution, "but I desire to impress my conviction and to express the hope that we will not lose our equilibrium and be swept off of our feet, at least at the instance of any foreign power or at the instance of any foreign propaganda set forth for the purpose of exciting us to war. In a matter of this grave import I resent and repel any attempted foreign dictation, no matter from what source it emanates or in what form it comes.

"I have presented this resolution because I think we should let the world know that we support the president whenever acting within his constitutional powers, he speaks authoritatively for the country.

AS TO THE DISSENTERS.

"There are senators who think it might have been the better part of wisdom if the president had postponed severance of relations with Germany at least until Germany had committed an overt act offensive to this government. But the president took a different view, and I think it wise for the senate to say officially that it approves his action."

Senator Underwood of Alabama scathingly rebuked Senator Stone for bringing the resolution before the senate at this time, but said that the necessity of united support at this time would result in his vote being cast for the resolution.

"I assume," Senator Underwood said, "that this resolution has not been introduced without consulting the president and getting his approval."

HAS NOT SEEN PRESIDENT.

Senator Stone, who was sitting beside the speaker, rose and said:

"It was introduced without a word with the president. I have not seen or talked with the president since he

GERARD WAITING FOR PASSPORTS; STILL IN BERLIN

Envoy Not Told When He Will Be Allowed to Quit Germany.

BULLETIN.

COPENHAGEN, Feb. 7.—The American legation announces that Minister Egan today received several sensational dispatches from Ambassador Gerard.

The latter telegraphs that the German authorities will not permit Americans to leave Germany at present. He says that he, his staff, and all American consular officials will be detained until the fate of Count von Bernstorff and the crews of the German ships interned in America has been decided.

The German authorities are denying Mr. Gerard the right to telegraph in code. All correspondence with the Copenhagen legation is now in plain English.

Ambassador Gerard advised Minister Egan that the sailors captured on the Yarrowdale will be detained on the same grounds as the other Americans.

BY CYRIL BROWN.

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—Ambassador Gerard has not received his passports and there is no certainty as to when this formality will take place. Under the trying circumstances Mr. Gerard is showing himself to be a philosopher. He intimated today that he was practically in the same boat as other American citizens.

Mr. Gerard's isolation is fairly complete, since American interests are now in the hands of the Spanish ambassador. He is busy winding up the affairs of the embassy and making arrangements for a special train out of Germany, though having as yet no idea as to his sailing date. As yet he has received no assurances as to the terms on which Americans will be allowed to leave Germany. He is drawing up a list of those whom he would like to take out with him.

Embassy Besieged for Passports.

Scores of more or less anxious Americans stormed the embassy today. The scenes were reminiscent of the early days of August, 1914. Not since the famous banquet to Mr. Gerard have so many Americans met together in Berlin. All were holders of passports good for residence in Germany only, or at most for visiting the central powers. They stampeded to the embassy to get their passports viséed for neutral countries, Denmark and Switzerland being the prime favorites.

The clerical staff, working at highest pressure, disposed of all comers with dispatch and no undue excitement, but those who left happily with their passports stamped found that it is essential to obtain a police permit to leave Germany.

Permits to Leave Withheld.

The German police decline to give permits until they receive instructions from the foreign office, which is waiting until the question regarding the treaty of 1799 is settled. The imperial government apparently sets great store by it, and it is understood to wish a protocol reaffirming all its terms. Americans are temporarily marooned here, therefore.

Yet, although the Americans here are in the absurdly hybrid position of being neither neutrals nor enemies, the attitude of Germany continues absolutely correct and even reassuringly friendly.

VON BERNSTORFF EXIT WAITS ON NORWAY RULING

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—A hitch has developed in the departure of Count von Bernstorff and his suite of 200 German officials from this country. The party was scheduled to sail on the Frederik VIII. next Tuesday, but today the Scandinavian line announced that the steamer would not sail until further instructions had been obtained from the Norwegian government.

The administration in seeking to obtain a charter of the steamer for the German official party has encountered an embarrassing situation in the request of the Scandinavian line that arrangements be made for the examination at Halifax of the steamer on which Count von Bernstorff and his party were expected to sail.

The United States and other neutral nations have protested vigorously against the action of Great Britain in compelling ships to call at British ports for examining and detaining mail on vessels that call voluntarily on their regular runs.

CANCEL TRIPS OF TWO LINERS DENIED CONVOY

Owners Will Consider Arming Own Ships, Firm Head Says.

New York, Feb. 7.—[Special.]—The sailing of the American line steamship St. Louis, as well as the St. Paul, also in port here, has been indefinitely postponed, it was announced tonight by P. A. S. Franklin, president of the International Mercantile Marine company, which owns the American line.

The announcement followed a telephone communication from Secretary of State Lansing, stating that the government could not give advice to private persons as to whether their vessels should sail on voyages which would take them through waters delimited by the German government.

The state department pointed out, however, that neutral vessels may arm themselves for defense and that it is the right of American ships to traverse any part of the high seas.

MAY ARM OWN SHIPS.

After Mr. Franklin had stated that the sailing of the American liners had been indefinitely postponed, an announcement was made that "the American line officials have now taken under consideration whether to sail their steamers without protection, or whether it is their duty to provide guns and gunners on their own account."

The International Mercantile Marine also sent instructions to its agents throughout the country not to book any more passengers on American line ships.

A cable was received by the Norwegian-American line announcing the arrival Tuesday at Bergen, Norway, of its liner Bergensfjord, which left here on Jan. 27. It had 331 passengers, of whom forty-eight were Americans.

CHANGE PORT OF CALL?

Negotiations to establish for Norwegian, Swedish, and Danish passenger ships a British port of call which would enable them to avoid Kirkwall, with its attendant dangers from mines and submarines, were reported here today to be progressing between Great Britain and representatives of the Scandinavian lines. It has been suggested, according to the agent of one of the lines, that Halifax or Bermuda be substituted for Kirkwall as a British port where ships may stop for inspection of cargo and passengers.

Although there has been no cancellation of sailings of British or allied ships from American ports, it is learned the British consulate is refusing passports for women and children on ships destined to pass through the war zone. The local agents of the Swedish-American line announced that the sailing of the steamer Stockholm for Gothenburg Saturday next had been postponed because of "the present conditions" until Monday, Feb. 12.

WILSON REFUSES CONVOY.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—[Special.]—President Wilson today declined to allow American passenger liners and other merchantmen to be convoyed by American naval vessels through the submarine war zones, and also refused to advise American merchantmen to arm for the purpose of repelling German submarines.

The president rejected the proposal on the ground that such action would indicate a conviction that Germany intends to carry out the program of ruthless submarine warfare on American as well as other ships.

According to administration officials Mr. Wilson believes that Germany might construe the convoying of ships by American naval vessels as an act of war by the United States and that Germany would respond either by declaring war or by attacking the naval convoys.

CARDINAL, ONCE IN U. S., IS DEAD

PARIS, Feb. 7.—Cardinal Diomede Falconio, prefect of the congregation of religious affairs and former apostolic delegate to the United States, died today.

Cardinal Falconio was born in 1842 and received the red hat in 1911. He was appointed apostolic delegate at Washington in 1902.

MILLION A YEAR ALL THIS STAR OF MOVIES ASKS

New York, Feb. 7.—Albert E. Smith, president of a large motion picture producing company, told members of a legislative investigating committee here today that a film star he tried to engage demanded a salary of a million dollars a year.

"She didn't get it, did she?" asked a member of the committee.

"Not from me," replied Mr. Smith.

The witness declared that "unless a kind providence reduces the salaries of some stars the producers will have to go out of business." Only a few stars are worth what they are getting, he added.

Edwin Thanhouser, another witness, asserted it as his belief that "the majority of manufacturers are losing money and many large distributers are sailing on thin ice."

DISCOVER BOMB AT WEST POINT

West Point, N. Y., Feb. 7.—[Special.]—Intense excitement prevailed here today when it became known that a dynamite bomb had been discovered under the gymnasium of the military academy. The bomb was found late Saturday night or Sunday and every effort has been made to keep the discovery a secret. As a result guards have been doubled around the government reservation and extra sentries have been placed in all the school buildings.

Steal 4 1-2 Miles of Wire; Tie Up Line to Golf Club

Andrew Kasow, Joseph Ball, and John Ruhl, ranging in age between 19 and 22, annexed four and one-half miles of copper feed wire in use daytimes to provide power for an electric line running from Evanston to the Westmoreland and Glen View golf club grounds.

Being a bit bulky, the wire was slashed and burned on the bank of the drainage canal to remove the insulation, while the trolley line ceased to operate.

"Whatcha got there? Feed wire?" queried Deputy Sheriff George Irmited.

"Why, so it is," chorused Andrew, Joseph, and John. "Where did that come from?"

Conviction yesterday won them indeterminate terms in the Pontiac reformatory.

GERMAN CRISIS IN A NUTSHELL

Anchor liner California sunk; one killed, thirty injured. Submarines destroy six British and one Italian steamer, two British trawlers, and two fishing boats.

Senate adopts, by vote of 78 to 5, resolution indorsing action of President Wilson in severing relations with Germany.

Washington anxiously awaiting full report on sinking of California, fearing it is an overt act.

SAVE AMERICAN ABOARD; CHILDREN ARE MISSING

Attack May Prove to Be One of Which President Gave Warning.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—[Special.]—The torpedoing without warning of the British liner California with one American aboard, the first instance of the destruction of a passenger ship since Germany issued her proclamation of ruthless submarine warfare, aroused great anxiety in official Washington tonight.

Although the one American passenger was saved, the occurrence brings the administration face to face with the problem of adopting measures to protect citizens of the United States in the new submarine war zones.

IS IT "OVERT ACT"?

Whether President Wilson will consider this incident the "overt act" which he said would cause him to take further action against Germany remains to be seen.

Upon receipt of the official report Secretary Tumulty went to the White House at 11 o'clock and carried a copy of the message to the president. When he returned he said that the president would have nothing to say tonight, but had retired to "sleep over it."

The fact that no American suffered death or injury by the torpedoing of the California is regarded merely a fortuitous circumstance by many administration officials, who say that the act of jeopardizing the safety of the one American passenger gives the situation a graver aspect.

GREAT LIST OF VICTIMS.

More than a score of merchant craft have been sent to the bottom in the war zone within the last twenty-four hours, and fifty or more since the German proclamation of ruthless warfare on the seas went into effect last Thursday.

With the California the immediate issue, officials were deeply impressed by the complete thoroughness of the German undersea campaign, and its promise, on the figures of the last two days, of carrying out Germany's threat to isolate England completely. Lloyd's reports received here show a total of 56,600 tons for two days, or destruction at the rate of 850,000 a month.

NEARING THE LIMIT SET.

German naval experts have said it would be necessary to cut off 1,000,000 tons a month to completely isolate England. If the present rate of 850,000 destroyed is maintained, it is suggested that the balance will be more than made up by the enormous amount of neutral shipping held in port by the various neutral governments and private shippers.

Hereafter the government will seek to have kept secret the fact of departure of vessels for the war zone in order not to invite unnecessary risks. The treasury department has previously issued strict instructions against the publication of manifests.

Creme de Menthe Sold as Soft Drink in Suburb

Creme de menthe is off the Oak Park "soft" drink cards. At the ice cream parlor of Christ Palos, at 901 South Park avenue, Detective Thomas Lindhe found creme de menthe on sale at 5 cents a drink. Analysis by the Oak Park city chemist showed a high percentage of alcohol.

Palos was arrested and charged with selling liquor without a license.

Consul Reports That Two Torpedoes Were Fired Into California.

(By the Associated Press.)

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—Consul Frost at Queenstown cabled the state department tonight that the British passenger liner California had been torpedoed without warning off the Irish coast, and that the one American known to have been on board was saved. Some of the passengers and crew still were missing, including two women and several children.

The captain of the ship was quoted as saying the submarine did not hail or give any warning before firing two torpedoes from a distance of 300 yards and sending the California down.

The American survivor was John A. Lee of Montgomery, Ala., who is supposed to have been a member of the crew.

FIRST REPORT ON SINKING.

This report supplemented one received earlier, which said:

Anchor line California has been sunk; bound Glasgow, presumably from New York; 200 persons on board; one death; thirty hospital cases; survivors reach here late tonight.

NO AMERICAN PASSENGER.

New York, Feb. 7.—No American citizens were among the thirty-one passengers on the California, according to officials of the Anchor line in this city. Records filed in accordance with neutrality regulations when applications were made for passage showed that while many of the persons who sailed on the liner lived in the United States, they were subjects of Great Britain. The belief was expressed also that there were no Americans in the crew of 184.

The cable message received at the Anchor line offices in this city announcing the sinking of the California said that 160 survivors out of the total of 215 persons aboard the vessel had been landed. Nothing was said of the fate of the remaining fifty-five.

CARRIED A GUN AFT.

The California, which sailed from New York for Glasgow Jan. 29, was armed with a defense gun mounted aft. It was due in Glasgow today or tomorrow and in the absence of details as to its exact position when sunk, it was believed it must have been off the north of Ireland.

The vessel, which was of 8,662 tons, carried a full cargo, believed to consist, in part at least, of war supplies.

Officers of the California, the first large passenger liner to be sunk since the publication of the recent German note defining a new sea policy, were: Captain, John L. Henderson; surgeon, William F. Alger; purser, D. Ethrington; chief steward, W. Henry.

THREE BIG SHIPS IN PERIL.

The loss of the California leaves the Adriatic, Baltic, and Cretic, also British passenger vessels, now at sea to be heard from, the Baltic being due to arrive in Liverpool today.

The California was one of four large twin screw passenger vessels built in 1907 for the Anchor Line fleet, the others being the Cameronia, Caledonia, and Columbia. It was 470 feet long and was fitted up with all modern conveniences for the comfort of sea travelers.

OTHER VESSELS VICTIMS.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—Lloyd's shipping agency reports the following victims of submarine warfare:

Vestra—British steamer of 1,021 tons.

Crown Point—British steamer of 5,218 tons.

Ferruccio—Italian steamer of 2,192 tons.

Saxon-Briton—British steamer, 1,337 tons. Two members of crew killed.

Azul—British steamer of 3,074 tons. Twelve rescued.

St. Ninian—British steamer of 3,026 tons.

Corsican Prince—British steamer of 2,776 tons. Seventeen men missing.

Macavena—Spanish steamer of 1,152 tons.

Two British trawlers.

Two British fishermen.

Two lives were lost on the British steamer Wartenfels, of 4,511 tons, reported sunk yesterday, the agency also announces.

NO WARNING TO SHIP.

An official statement issued today by the British government concerning the sinking by a German submarine of the British passenger liner Port Adelaide, previously reported, says:

> The British steamer Port Adelaide, carrying passengers from London to Australia, was torpedoed without warning on Saturday by a German submarine. The passengers were rescued by the Dutch steamer Samarinda and landed at Vigo. The master, however, was made prisoner abroad the submarine.
>
> Germany's withdrawal from its pledge to the United States not to sink passenger ships without due warning thus has been emphasized.

Sunk in Spanish Waters.

The Peruvian sailing vessel Lorton, while on a voyage from Callao, Peru, was sunk by a German submarine on Monday inside Spanish territorial waters, according to a British official statement issued today. The official announcement says:

> The Peruvian sailing vessel Lorton, on a passage from Callao, was sunk by an enemy submarine inside Spanish territorial waters.
>
> It is interesting to note that on the very day this dual affront to two neutral states was perpetrated a German wireless press message was boasting of the consideration shown by Germany to the interests of neutrals.

The crew of the British steamer Palmleaf assert that after their vessel had been torpedoed by a German submarine the captain and chief engineer were made prisoner by the Germans, who left the other members of the ship's company in open boats.

British Not Alarmed.

"We are not alarmed at the sharpened submarine war. We knew it was coming and prepared for it. Time will tell how our confidence is justified."

This statement was made to the Associated Press today at the admiralty, and it was added:

"It must be remembered that one submarine may cruise whole days without getting a victim. For instance, on one day since Feb. 1 torpedoes were fired on sight at seven of our merchantmen without getting a single hit. We have taken measures which we have every reason to believe will frustrate the U-boat warfare. Of course it is obvious that we cannot reveal them—the daily reports of the decrease in sinkings will be the best evidence of our success."

Ambassador Page today forwarded to Wesley Frost, the American consul at Cork, instructions from Washington to obtain affidavits from members of the crew of the British steamship Eavestone for transmission to the state department.

The steamship Eavestone, according to an official report, was sunk by a German submarine, killing the captain and three seamen, one of whom was Richard Wallace, an American Negro, of Baltimore.

Mr. Page has been notified that the sole survivor of the Belgian relief steamship Lars Kruse, which was sunk by a torpedo near the Belgian coast on Monday, has been landed in France. Mr. Page telegraphed this report to Ambassador Sharp at Paris with the request that he get in touch with the survivor and forward his full account to the state department at Washington.

Insurance Rates Advance.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—Increases ranging from 125 per cent to 900 per cent for war risk insurance issued by the federal war risk insurance bureau were announced today by Secretary McAdoo. They are effective from all American ports to all destinations.

U. S. PETITION STIRS GREECE

LONDON, Feb. 7.—A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram company from Athens says:

"The American communication to Greece, requesting a definition of her attitude in view of the German submarine blockade, has somewhat embarrassed the Greek government, which is sounding other neutrals before replying."

THIS WILL MAKE MILLIONS HAPPY

Any corn will dry up and lift out, says a Cincinnati Concern.

Let folks step on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, because a few drops of a drug called Freezone, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out without pain.

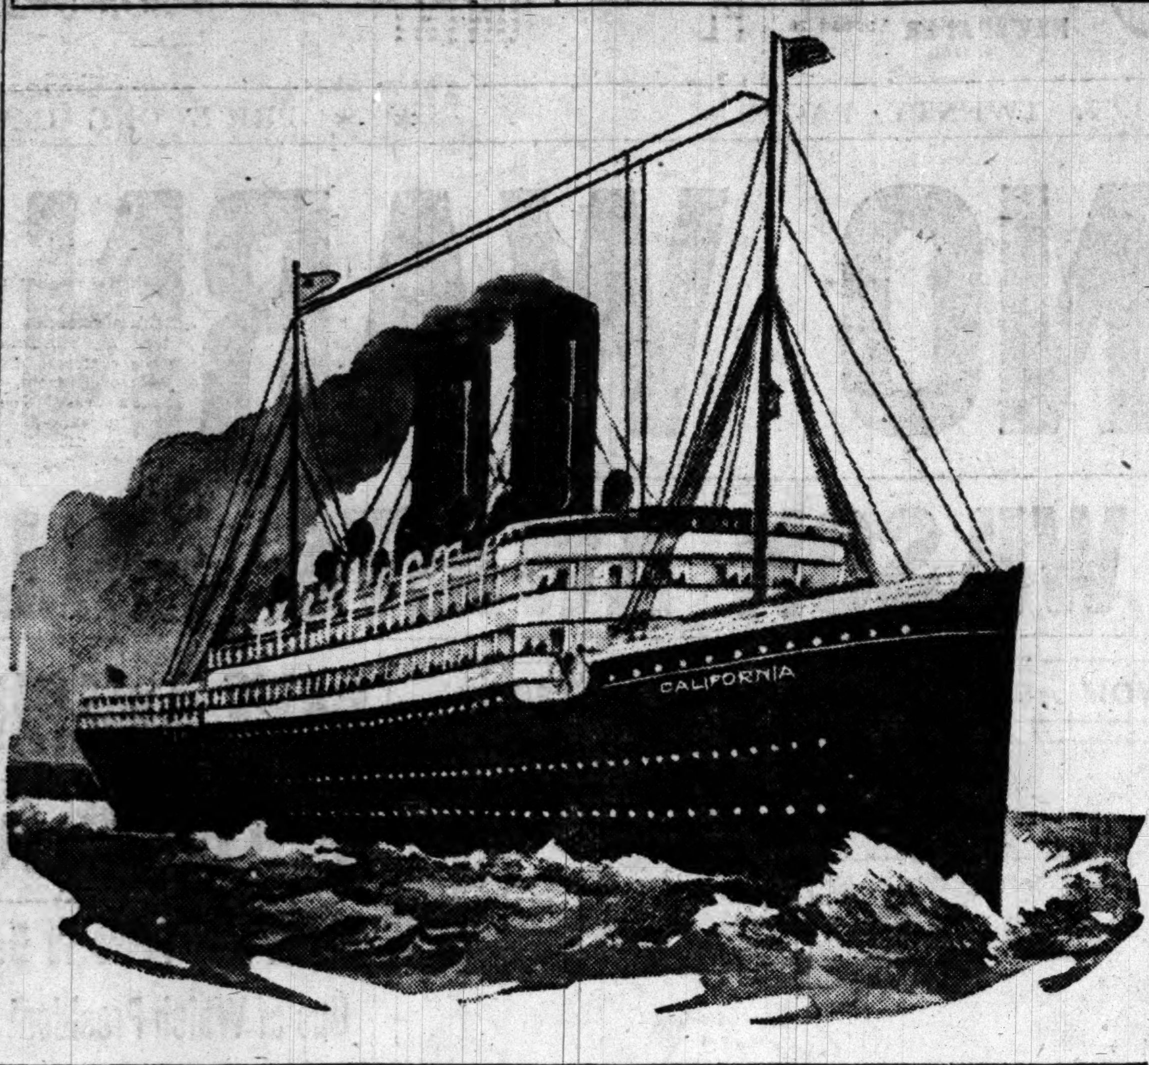
This drug dries at once and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue.

A small bottle of Freezone can be obtained at any drug store and will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Cut this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.

Genuine Freezone bears the name Edward Wesley Co., Cincinnati, O.—Adv.

LINER CALIFORNIA SUNK BY U-BOAT

Big Anchor Steamer Victim of Kaiser's Undersea Warfare.



SEA WAR CAN BE MADE NO WORSE, VIEW OF FRENCH

PARIS, Feb. 7.—Rear Admiral Lacaze, minister of marine, in a statement to the Associated Press today on the German submarine campaign, said:

"The German submarine campaign cannot in its spirit and in the quality of its acts be worse than it has been. The crews of vessels torpedoed, whether belonging to neutrals or the allies, have been put adrift in open boats during all this winter to die more cruelly of cold and hunger than if they had been shot at once. Ships' boats during this season of high winds and bitter cold cannot keep the sea.

"Now we shall probably have a month or two of torpedoing more active than heretofore. We have had these declarations of the intention to submarine ships regardless of sea rights two or three times before, following intervals during which the Germans accumulated submarines. A larger number will be sent out now; then probably we shall have another period of relative inactivity, during which the submarines lost will be replaced and those damaged repaired."

Admiral Lacaze had on his desk reports of the torpedoing on Sunday night of the Danish steamer Lars Kruse, loaded with food of the Belgian relief committee for the Belgians and the inhabitants of the invaded districts of France.

"The vessel was torpedoed without notice toward midnight," the admiral said. "Every man of the crew of nineteen perished except one. He was rescued by a French torpedo boat."

Turning to another paper the admiral said: "Here is the report of the torpedoing the day before yesterday of a Peruvian four master, with a cargo of nitrate, within two miles of the Spanish coast, that is say, within Spanish territorial waters."

CREWS ESCAPE INTERNED SHIPS

New York, Feb. 7.—Evidence that the thirty-one German and Austrian ships self-detained in this port have been disabled and that most of their crews left them prior to the placing of a guard over the ships by the customs authorities on Sunday, is in possession of federal officials, it was authoritatively learned today. Figures made public today by government investigators show that more than 4,000 members of the crews have vanished. Whereas there were 5,460 officers and men aboard the vessels at the outbreak of the war, there are now only 1,194.

OFFER BILL TO GIVE U. S. POWER TO SEIZE SHIPS

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—Sweeping provisions for commandeering vessels and other shipping facilities in case of war or threatened war are contained in a bill introduced in both senate and house today and backed by a request from the administration that it be pressed to immediate passage.

The president would be authorized under the bill to take over "in time of war or any proclaimed national emergency" any vessel owned by a citizen of the United States or by a corporation organized in the United States; any vessel building in the United States; any vessel registered under the American flag; any vessel purchased, leased, or chartered by the federal shipping board; or any other instrumentality of water commerce within the country, including docks, warehouses, and other terminal facilities.

A provision is attached specifically prohibiting sale of American vessels to foreigners or their transfer to foreign flags in time of emergency.

The administration has been greatly exercised by reports that Germany is informed that the United States has seized German merchantmen in American harbors. Germany is said to be indignant over these reports. The first step taken by the White House this morning was to issue denials intended to correct such impressions in Germany and elsewhere.

It was asserted that no German ships had been seized and that the only ones interfered with in any way were certain vessels of German nationality which the government had reason to believe might be sunk in the waters approaching the entrance to the Panama canal.

LINER RYNDAM IS CALLED BACK

New York, Feb. 7.—The Holland-American liner Ryndam, which sailed from New York Jan. 29, is returning to this port, a cable message from the Holland-America line's offices abroad informed the local offices today.

There are ninety-seven passengers on tht Ryndam, sixty-eight in the first and twenty-nine in the second cabin.

Among the passengers is Desire Derulle, American consular agent at Luxemburg.

ASK $6,250,000 PACIFIC COAST NAVAL BASES

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—Establishment of a new naval base on San Francisco bay and development of the Puget sound navy yard as a base were recommended today by the board of navy officers, which made a special study of the situation. Their report urges immediate appropriations of $1,500,000 for the acquisition of a site on San Francisco bay; $2,250,000 for further development of Mare island yard for building purposes, and $2,500,000 for the development of Puget sound.

UP TO WILSON, VIENNA'S VIEW

VIENNA, Feb. 6, via London, Feb. 7.—Government circles today were calmly awaiting new developments with regard to the submarine controversy with America. A high official said to the Associated Press that all the moves were in the hands of President Wilson; that the Austro-Hungarian government was not seeking complications and would do nothing which would enable the president to go before the American people with the claim that he had been driven to radical action.

The government's attitude, however, appears to be of calm determination to follow the policy announced, but the desire to continue on good relations with the United States is universal on the part of the press and the public.

Many newspapers declare President Wilson at last has unmasked himself as a silent ally of the entente.

ASSERT DIVER FIRED ON BOATS

LONDON, Feb. 8, 5:05 a. m.—Survivors of the torpedoed British steamer Eavestone are quoted as saying they were only two ship lengths away from the submarine when the latter shelled the boats. They assert that there was no justification for the firing, as everybody had left the ship. The steamer was sunk while 100 miles from land and the crew spent nine hours in the small boats during the tempestuous weather.

SCANDINAVIANS SPURN U. S. BID TO JOIN BREAK

Sweden Plans to Protest on U-Boats, but Not to Sever Relations.

STOCKHOLM, via London, Feb. 7.—Sweden will not accept President Wilson's invitation to sever diplomatic relations with Germany. The Swedish government, however, will protest against the newly inaugurated German naval policy.

The answer of the Swedish government to the note which the American minister, Ira Nelson Morris, delivered to K. A. Wallenberg, the foreign minister, yesterday, has not yet been communicated to Mr. Morris. But the Associated Press learns from a well informed source that Sweden is just as firmly resolved now as she has been from the first to maintain the most strict neutrality. While Sweden will protest against the zone of Germany's new blockade, she will content herself with a protest and will take no step which could make it more difficult to maintain her neutrality.

Norway Will Not Help.

CHRISTIANIA, Feb. 7, via London.—Norway will not agree to President Wilson's suggestion in regard to breaking relations with Germany, the Aftenpost says. This newspaper asserts that European neutrals must decide on their policy toward Germany "according to their own interests, not according to American sentiments," and adds:

"The Scandinavian countries gave full support to President Wilson's peace move, but that is no reason why a few weeks later they should follow Mr. Wilson in taking steps which are generally considered to be a prelude to war. To the latest American note Norway has no answer but this."

Argentine Protests.

BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 7.—The Argentine Republic this evening handed to the German minister its reply to Germany's notification of the new zone of naval warfare established by that country.

The Argentine Republic's note declares the government regrets that the German emperor has thought fit to adopt measures so extreme and that Argentina will conform its conduct, as always, to the principles and fundamental rules of international law.

Brazil Holds Germany Responsible.

RIO JANEIRO, Feb. 7.—According to authoritative information the Brazilian note protests against the violation of international law involved in the submarine blockade and points out that such a blockade could, if effective, close the entire high seas, a situation which could not be permitted.

The note protests by anticipation against any hostile act from which a Brazilian merchant ship should suffer by virtue of the blockade and holds Germany responsible for such acts.

The Journal do Commercio says it learns that Uruguay will make a formal protest against the German note on submarine warfare.

Cuba Sends Berlin Protest.

HAVANA, Feb. 7.—Germany's note regarding submarine warfare was received here this morning. President Menocal conferred at the palace with the committee on foreign relations and at 4:30 o'clock this evening the government forwarded a reply to Germany protesting against her policy of unrestricted submarine warfare.

Chile's Protest Prepared.

SANTIAGO, Chile, Feb. 7.—The Havas Agency learns from a good source that the response of the Chilean government to Germany is ready and that it will not differ in any degree from the replies of the majority of the neutral powers which have protested against infractions of the rules of international law with respect to freedom of the seas.

Swiss Note Public Today.

BERNE, via Paris, Feb. 7.—The Swiss government's reply to the suggestion of President Wilson that all neutrals sever relations with Germany will be published tomorrow, simultaneously with a note defining Switzerland's attitude toward the German submarine blockade.

SPAIN'S PROTEST

Follows America's Lead in Note to Germany Branding Ruthless Sea War as Against Laws of Nations and Humanity.

MADRID, via Paris, Feb. 7.—The Spanish government's reply to Germany's submarine war zone note is a firm and dignified protest against it. The text of the reply follows:

"His majesty's government has attentively examined the note which your serene highness was good enough to remit to me the 31st of January, in which is set forth the German government's resolute intention to interrupt as from the following day all sea traffic, without further notice and by no matter what arm around Great Britain, France, Italy, and in the eastern Mediterranean.

"I must say that the note caused a painful impression on the Spanish government. The attitude of strict neutrality which Spain adopted from the beginning and has maintained with loyalty and unshakable firmness gives her the right to expect that the lives of her subjects engaged in sea trade should not be placed in such grave peril. It also gives her the right to expect that trade should not be troubled nor diminished by such an increase in the extent of the zones in which the imperial government insists that, in order to attain its ends, it must use all weapons and suppress all limitations which it has hitherto imposed upon its methods of naval warfare.

"Even before the imperial government has set aside these restrictions his majesty's government had protested, holding them insufficient to comply with the prescriptions of international maritime law. But the methods of war announced by Germany are being carried to such an unexpected and unprecedented extreme that the Spanish government, considering its rights and the requirements of its neutrality, must with still more reason protest calmly but firmly to the imperial government and must make at the same time the necessity reserves, imposed by the legitimate presumption of ineluctable responsibility which the imperial government assumes, principally in view of the loss of life which its attitude may cause.

◆

"His majesty's government bases its protest on the fact that the decision to completely close the road to certain seas by substituting for the indisputable right of capture in certain cases a pretended right of destruction in all cases is outside the legal principles of international life. Above all, it considers that the extension in the form announced of this pretended right of destruction to the lives of noncombatants and the subjects of neutral nations such as Spain, is contrary to the principles observed by all nations even in moments of the greatest violence.

◆

"These claims are based on the inexorable duty which binds a government to protect the lives of its subjects and maintain the integrity of its sovereignty so that the course of national existence be not interrupted. For the reasons set out his majesty's government feels itself fully sustained in its position by reason and law."

BERLIN THINKS NEUTRALS PLAN TO AVOID ACTION

Believes No Other Nation Will Follow Example America Set.

BY JAMES O'DONNELL BENNETT.

[Special Wireless Dispatch to The Tribune.]

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—There has been no material change in regard to the relations between Germany and the United States since Tuesday.

Germany notes, with understandable satisfaction, the expressions in the Dutch and Swiss press advising those nations against following the lead of America in regard to the submarine warfare, and the official circles have reason to believe that Spain will adopt the attitude of Holland and Switzerland.

The continuance by Sweden of its policy of benevolent neutrality is considered certain, and as a result of talks with the representatives of neutral countries it is believed that there is general reluctance to figure as America's satellites in its policy toward Germany.

Glad Report Was False.

The denial of the reports that America had confiscated the German ships in the harbors of that country is the cause of as much satisfaction as the false report caused disappointment, because the people had believed that America, having always advocated sustaining international law, would keep a cool head in the present crisis.

The psychological effect of the reaction from Monday's bitterness caused by the incorrect report of the ship seizures is curious, because it has resulted in a wave of friendly feeling toward the nation which has broken with Germany.

Gerard May Start Soon.

The arrangements for the train which is to carry Ambassador Gerard and his staff and the other Americans out of Germany are in the hands of the German government. The time of departure and the size of the train have not been decided.

Numerous Berliners have telephoned to numerous Americans offering their friendly assurances and even financial assistance to facilitate their possible departure. The attitude toward us in the official and military circles is not only absolutely correct but most kind. The American colony continues to behave with the utmost sanity and dignity and the Berliners maintain the same attitude.

The examination and countersigning by the police of the passports of the Americans intending to depart will require ten days, but great courtesy is observed. We are all well and hopeful.

BRITISH CHIEFS ASSERT VICTORY WILL BE FORCED

King Says Submarine War Has Only Resulted in New Wrath.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—"Great Britain will see the war through." This was the sentiment expressed by King George and the leaders of both houses at the opening of parliament today. In his address from the throne the king said:

"For the third time in succession I summon you to your deliberations in the midst of war. Certain overtures, of which you are aware, have been made by the enemy with a view to opening peace negotiations. Their tenor, however, indicated no possible basis of peace.

"My people throughout the empire and my faithful and heroic allies remain steadfastly and unanimously resolved to secure the just demands for reparation and restitution in respect of the past and guarantees for the future which we regard as essential to the progress of civilization.

"In response to an invitation by the president of the United States of America, we have outlined, so far as can be done at present, the general objects necessarily implied by these aims. Threats of further outrages upon public law and the common rights of humanity will but serve to steel our determination more."

An Admiral's View.

In seconding the address in reply to the speech from the throne, Admiral Sir Hedworth Meux, Unionist, said:

"We have every reason to hope the same success which attended the destruction of Zeppelins is in a fair way of being realized to counter the submarine trouble."

Former Premier Asquith described Germany's new naval policy as one of "undisguised savagery."

"This declaration of war on neutrality," he continued, "is a challenge which has been taken up with dignity and without delay by the greatest of neutral states."

"Unequaled in Savagery."

In the house of lords the Marquis of Crewe said that Germany had thrown aside the mask of humanity by its latest utterance and had promised a warfare of unequaled savagery which was staggering not in the sense its authors hoped, but to those who contemplated Germany's moral position.

The speaker said he know of no parallel in modern history for Germany's act. Even Napoleon and Frederick II., he said, unscrupulous as they were, would have shrunk from such a threat.

The action of the United States government in the face of the German menace, he added, would be founded on a high moral basis. He hoped, however, that nobody would suppose that the action of America would make it less incumbent upon the allies to do the utmost possible to win the war.

Curzon Praise to America.

Earl Curzon, alluding to the action of the United States in severing relations with Germany, said: "When, after patience almost unexampled, the United States, through its president, refused to have further to do with an unclean thing, it justified the saying that the moral judgment of the world would be delivered against Germany."

He declared that other neutrals would undoubtedly follow the example of America, and that there were other nations which would like to follow it if they could.

Lord Curzon thought that the allies were approaching the real and terrible crisis of the war and that things would be attempted by the central powers "surpassing in horror and monstrosity anything hitherto tried." Recognizing the seriousness of the peril, he said, Great Britain was multiplying destroyers, arming merchantmen, developing scientific inventions for the discovery and destruction of submarines, and endeavoring to protect neutral shipping by organizing sea lanes of safety through the danger zones, in addition to accelerating shipbuilding, and added:

"Ere long the government must call upon the country to accept a restriction of imports and consumption of commodities far in excess of anything yet known. We must be ready with all our resources to beat the enemy."

200 ARE KILLED BY DYNAMITE

AMSTERDAM, Feb. 7.—According to Les Nouvelles of Maestricht, Holland, a dynamite factory at Schlebusch, near Cologne, was blown up on Jan. 27, causing the death of 200 persons, mostly women.

An explosion last Thursday on the railway between Aix-la-Chapelle and Louvain, this newspaper reports, caused the death or injury of twenty-six Belgian workmen.

New York, Feb. 7.—[Special.]—Richard Harding Davis, novelist, who died at Mount Kisco April 11 last, did not leave a large estate. The report of the transfer tax appraiser, William C. Clark, filed with Surrogate Sawyer at White Plains today, shows the total value of the property was $56,155. Debts and the expenses of the administration reduced this to $45,397.

Drowns in Sewer After Plunge Through Manhole

New York, Feb. 7.—An unidentified man stepped into an open manhole in a Brooklyn street tonight and fell into a trunk sewer sixty-five feet beneath the surface of the street, where a torrent of water seven feet deep is believed to have swept his body two miles and a half into the East river.

CARL SCHINKEL, 58 years old, 2035 Mohawk street, who expects to leave Chicago next Sunday with Baron H. Kurt von Reiswitz und Kaderzin, imperial German consul, Vice Consul Kurt G. Sell, Secretary Hans Repmann and other attachés, has been an employé of the consulate for more than a quarter of a century. Mr. Schinkel will leave his wife, Barbara Schinkel; his daughter, Hedwig, 21 years old, and his son, Carl, 10 years old, in Chicago, where they are being educated.

"I yet hope for peace," said Mr. Schinkel yesterday. "I am sorry to leave my hundreds of Chicago friends to go to Germany, where I will not be able to communicate with my family for perhaps many months. I am still hoping that something may happen to prevent my going."

"We are all praying that President Wilson will yet succeed in keeping peace between the United States and Germany," said another secretary to the consul, who, with six other employés, is preparing to make the trip to Germany.

SAY BRITISH PERIL WOUNDED

LONDON, Feb. 7.—The following Berlin wireless dispatch was received here today:

"German newspapers, discussing the British attitude toward Germany's action in prohibiting hospital ships in the channel zone, point out that the German measures were taken on account of abuse of privileges by the British. They say that if the British, notwithstanding the German warning, expose their wounded to dangers in the channel zone they will do so manifestly with the aim of saddling Germany with responsibility for these victims.

"In fact, there is no necessity of transporting the wounded to England, since they can be cared for as well in France."

WIFE DIVORCES LIEUT. H. STONE

Burlington, Ia., Feb. 7.—After a hearing that has been marked by sensations, Mrs. Howard Stone was granted a divorce from Lieut. Howard Stone, United States marine corps, here today.

During the hearing a letter was read in court, written by Lieut. Stone while in Vera Cruz, Mex., in which he bitterly denounced President Wilson and his administration and severely criticized many of his superior officers.

Mrs. Stone was granted custody of the daughter, Beatrice, and an alimony of $100 per month. She also will have the son, Sanford, until September, 1918.

NAVY EXAMINES CHICAGO MAN'S 'SEA DEADLINER'

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—[Special.]—Secretary of the Navy Daniels has written to William Schneider of Chicago asking him to submit for the consideration of the department plans and specifications for the device invented by him for the protection of the coast line of the United States.

The secretary received from Mr. Schneider this week a letter in which the inventor offered to furnish the details of his plan, which, he said, would prevent enemy warships from passing a dead line thirty or even forty miles from shore.

Mr. Schneider is the inventor of a ship safety equipment which has been approved by the steamboat inspectors of Chicago. The device provides for the equipment of any type of boat with "water wings" inflated from compressed air tanks in the ship. They will prevent a ship of any size from sinking, whatever the nature of the injury, and will operate with equal success in bringing to the surface a crippled submarine.

Chicagoans Form New Patriotic Organization

"America First" is the name given to a patriotic organization formed at a meeting in the Hotel La Salle yesterday by officials and representatives from more than forty patriotic and civic societies and women's clubs and organizations of Chicago. The purpose of the society is "to teach foreign citizens, men, women, and children, the sanctity of the American flag, to instil American patriotism into the foreign element of Chicago and the country, and to encourage the wearing of the American flag and displaying it from public and business houses."

BAKER HOLDS UP STAFF PLAN FOR ARMY TRAINING

Secretary Delays Action Meant to Prepare U.S. Defense.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—[Special.]—Although the United States is facing the prospect of war, Secretary of War Baker is effectively blocking, for the present, any consideration of the army general staff plan of universal military training.

Said to be the most complete and by far the most acceptable of any plan of universal military service ever devised for the United States, the general staff plan has been shunted back and forth for several weeks by Secretary Baker. It now is likely to emerge from the war college too late for congress to act on the suggestions.

The general staff plan was tentatively completed several weeks ago, but was referred back to the general staff by Secretary Baker with a request for information regarding minor details. This information was furnished and then more information was demanded. These tactics succeeded in holding up the plan until two weeks ago, when the final plan was submitted to Secretary Baker by the general staff.

Asks for More Details.

Secretary Baker still was not satisfied. He asked for more minor details, and the plan was again referred back to the general staff despite the fact that that body desired greatly to put the plan before the present session of congress.

When asked about the status of the general staff plan Secretary Baker said: "The general staff has submitted a tentative plan for universal military training. No action has been taken on it and it has gone back to the general staff for perfection of several details."

Advocates of universal military training believe that the tactics of Secretary Baker constitute the crowning evidence of his lukewarmness to the proposal.

What the Plan Provides.

Although complete details of the general staff plan are not available, THE TRIBUNE is able to present the following synopsis of its provisions:

The plan provides for one year's military service by all citizens of the United States between certain ages, probably from 19 to 21 or 22.

Both mental and physical exemptions would be made under the plan, along with certain minor exemptions which would not affect many citizens.

The immediate graduation of the senior classes at West Point and Annapolis is suggested.

The further enlargement of West Point is suggested.

It is estimated that something more than 500,000 young men would be trained each year under this plan, whereas under the Chamberlain plan more than 1,000,000 men would be trained each year.

Why Limit Is Placed.

The general staff estimates that the defense of the United States could be provided for by the yearly training of 500,000 young men. The general staff is of the opinion that to train as many as a million men each year would be impracticable for many reasons.

In the first place, it is explained, such a plan would cost an immense sum each year—probably a great deal more than the country could afford and certainly a great deal more than necessary to provide for the defense of the nation.

In the second place, the officers would not be available to train a million men a year, whereas the general staff feels that enough officers to train 500,000 men can be obtained.

The educational test, it is contended, would have the effect of getting only the most desirable recruits into the army. THE TRIBUNE has been informed that the general staff plan is so complete as to state exactly what this educational exemption would be.

Auto Injuries Fatal.

Fred Pugge, 60 years old, of 4243 Wentworth avenue died at the German Deaconess hospital last night of injuries received Jan. 19 when he was struck by an automobile owned by F. A. Hart of 3725 South Halsted street.

Young Chicago Society Woman Decides Not to Go Abroad as Red Cross Nurse.

Miss Dorothy Dickason, who quietly left Chicago a few days ago for New York on her way to France, where she intended to become a nurse in one of Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt's hospitals despite the objections of her mother, Mrs. Livingston Dickason, may change her plans after all. This announcement she made to a TRIBUNE correspondent who found her last night at the Ritz-Carlton hotel in New York.

It had been said that Miss Dickason decided to become a war nurse after she had broken her engagement to Walter Stauffer of New Orleans. She explained that the reason the wedding date had not been announced, thus giving rise to the rumor, was that Stauffer was on the Mexican border as a member of the Louisiana national guard.

Miss Dickason took a prominent part at the allied bazaar. She had planned to sail for France with Mrs. Robert Bogues of Paris as chaperon. Miss Dickason's traveling companion to New York was Miss Catherine Steele.

Following the interview Miss Dickason attended a dance at the home of Mrs. George J. Gould. During the latter part of the week Miss Dickason will attend a party in her honor to be given by Mayor and Mrs. Mitchel.

ASSEMBLY OF WISCONSIN AT ODDS ON CRISIS

Madison, Wis., Feb. 7.—[Special.]—The Wisconsin state senate by a unanimous vote today adopted a resolution offered by Senator Burke pledging Wisconsin's unqualified loyalty to the nation and "tendering the resources of the state and the services of its sons in defense of national honor and national integrity."

The lower house spent an hour debating a resolution offered by Assemblyman Nordman, which pledges support to the president in the present international crisis, but expresses faith that the executive will do all possible to avert war. Assemblyman Hart of Oshkosh opposed the resolution. He said if the United States entered the conflict war might go on until civilization is blotted out.

"If a person wants to be a woman let him wear petticoats," declared Assemblyman Weston Woodard. "My father fought in the civil war and I want to stand by the president of the United States."

After a rather acrimonious debate the resolution went over.

600 CHICAGOANS PLEDGE COUNTRY LIFE AND MEANS

Unity Needed, Speakers Say at Association of Commerce Feast.

Six hundred of Chicago's representative business men, members of the Chicago Association of Commerce, met yesterday at a noonday luncheon in the Hotel La Salle, gave solemn and earnest consideration to this nation's crisis, and before the close of the meeting voted unanimously to pledge loyalty, life, and resources to their country and flag.

The session was vibrant with patriotism, which manifested itself early with reverent singing of the national anthem, "America."

Urges Chicago Influence.

"I hope," said President John W. O'Leary of the association, "when the test comes the men of commerce of Chicago will meet the demands made upon them with a spirit of patriotism and self-sacrifice so powerful that its influence will spread over the entire nation. That united thought and undivided loyalty exist, the last few trying days have demonstrated."

The speaker closed his address with a ringing plea for willing payment of war's expenses if need arises, renunciation of abnormal profits for war supplies, and combination of the virtues of the other belligerents with the youth and wealth of the United States.

Col. George Buckingham traced the history of American independence and the past of the state of Illinois to the present supreme crisis, where the nation marks time awaiting the act of another ruler as cause for commencement of hostilities.

Poise Needed Now.

The closing address was made by the Rev. John Timothy Stone, who said in part:

"Poise under tension is the principal need of the country now. Both individual and country need this—exactly what we saw recently in a TRIBUNE cartoon, one who represented the masses standing by the president and saying, 'Steady, old man, steady.'"

Salvation Army Ready.

"The unqualified support and loyalty" of the Salvation Army of the western twenty-five states and Hawaiian Islands was pledged to President Wilson in a telegram sent at the conclusion of an important conference of the highest territorial officers, held in the citadel, 1512 West Madison street, yesterday. While the message contained no specific proffer of aid, it was taken to mean that in event of war the entire facilities of the Salvation Army in the west—chaplains, nurses, ambulances, brigades, and scores of big buildings owned throughout the country—will be tendered to the government.

Now It's a Postcard Vote on What U. S. Ought to Do!

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—The American Union Against Militarism headquarters here announced tonight that it had undertaken a nation-wide postcard referendum on the question whether the United States should go to war to uphold the rights of the citizens to go into the war zone.

VETERAN OF '64 PLEADS TO FIGHT AGAIN FOR U. S.

Recruits Crowd Offices —Great Parade and Meeting Today.

He was one of Uncle Sam's boys who marched with Sherman to the sea and he thought his aged body still might be of use to his country.

No one paid particular attention to John Burns as he entered the recruiting station at 526 South State street. For several minutes he halted in front of the recruiting sergeant's desk. Then the sergeant asked what he wanted.

He pulled himself erect, clicked his heels together, saluted the flag, and said:

"I want to serve the flag—I want to enlist."

Only 75 Years Old.

Burns told the sergeant he was 75 years old, that he had served four years in the civil war, had marched with Sherman to the sea, and seen three years' service in the navy.

The veteran declared he had two sons ready to enlist and was induced to bring them in in his stead today.

After three days of record recruiting at all three branches of the country's defense—the army, the marines, and the navy—the climax will be reached this morning at 11:30 during a demonstration under the auspices of the Navy league which will begin with a parade at Congress and Wabash.

After marching down Michigan avenue to Jackson, down Jackson to State, and from State to Madison the parade will end at Powers' theater, where a mass-meeting will be held at 12:30. Addresses calling upon the youth of Chicago to answer the call of the country will be made. Among the speakers will be Bishop Samuel Fallows.

Plan More Recruiting Stations.

Resolutions were adopted at night by the Cook County Democratic central committee pledging support to President Wilson and offering to establish recruiting stations in every ward in Chicago.

A call for women recruits for first aid work was made by Secretary W. M. Lewis of the Navy league.

The Chicago Telephone company and the Western Union Telegraph company are organizing operators and linemen for war service.

Robert Fraser, Carrol Gates, Francis Johnson, and John Coulter of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity of the University of Chicago left yesterday for France to serve in the American ambulance service. If the United States is forced into war before they sail they will join the American Red Cross.

750,000 Pythians Pledge Aid to U. S. if War Comes

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 7.—Gov. Frank O. Lowden today received a telegram from John B. Brown of Vandalia, supreme chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, offering the services of 750,000 Pythians in case of war with Germany.

RASH ON FACE ITCHING INTENSE

Caused Disfigurement. Lost Sleep. Cuticura Healed.

"My face broke out in a rash which caused disfigurement for the time being. The skin was red, and the itching was so intense that I lost sleep. "I used —— Salve and —— Salve but they did not do any good, and the trouble lasted about three weeks. Then I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment which helped so I bought a bar of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment which healed me." (Signed) Jos. P. Bolger, 2429 W. Polk St., Chicago, Ill., Oct. 16, 1916.

Cheap soaps, harsh soaps, coarse, strongly medicated soaps are responsible for half the skin troubles in the world. They make little irritations into great ones. Stop the use of all doubtful soaps. Use Cuticura for all toilet purposes. Help it, with touches of Ointment applied to any redness, roughness, pimples or dandruff.

For Free Sample Each by Return Mail address post-card: "Cuticura, Dept. H, Boston." Sold everywhere.

"Our Country! In her intercourse with foreign nations may she always be in the right; but our country, right or wrong."
—Stephen Decatur.

A TREASONABLE ORGANIZATION.

Until last week the organization of the national house, or of any party in the house, was only a political matter. Naturally, certain members who had held their seats long and had come to know each other, held control, and members from all over the country not acquainted with each other could only follow the lead of the veterans.

Hitherto the only ill effect of this dominance has been unfair legislation, the placing of the burden of taxation upon one portion of the country and the expenditure of the benefits in the other.

In the last few days, however, there has been an inexplicable development in Washington. The Democratic majority of the committee on military affairs has taken a stand against the United States. It will not permit this nation to arm to defend itself.

If the Democratic organization of the whole house supports the seditious committee members, it threatens the life of the nation.

In this event there is only one possible course for patriotic Democrats. That course is to overthrow the present house organization.

It will take courage, but it must be done. We look to the Democratic congressmen from the middle west, where patriotism reaches its highest flame and nationalism its most complete development, to take the lead in this direction. The present house organization must be overthrown to save the nation. The middle western Democrats have this duty upon them.

WILL THIS WRONG BE DONE?

A strike vote has been taken by the switchmen belonging to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. The members of the switchmen's union submitted their claims to arbitration and are not involved in the present controversy. The ballot of the trainmen was in favor of a strike. The questions involved are of a character which may and should be submitted to arbitral adjustment, and a strike at any time to enforce them would be unjustifiable.

At this time, with the nation facing war, a strike would pass the bounds of public toleration. If considerations of patriotism do not deter the trainmen's leaders, considerations of self-interest should do so. The American people are patient almost without limit, but not quite. And this would pass the limit.

GAGGING THE PEOPLE.

The state representative who votes against the resolution to submit the constitutional convention to the people is telling his constituents they shall not speak for themselves on this important matter.

He is putting his hands over their mouths.

Let every representative understand exactly what he is doing, for it is a heavy responsibility and cannot be dodged.

Just now there are interests working under cover to prevent the house from letting the people speak. They are afraid a convention might injure their privileges. They may be right and they may be wrong in their fears, but the place to fight for their interests is before the convention. If voters do not want constitutional revision by convention they will say so.

The question now is whether politicians working for special interests are strong enough in the house to refuse the people the right to make their own decision.

THE SILENT STRENGTH OF WOMAN.

The devotion of women like Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Albert Loeb expresses the spirit of a type of American women which we do not find in mass meetings to reform the world. They do not belong to societies to combat the monster of militarism or other popular monsters. They are not filling congressional committee rooms with improvised theories on difficult professional problems or importuning the president, or planning Utopias. But when the great day of accounting comes they give not words but deeds, not resolutions but resolution, not petitions but heroic sacrifice.

The strength of a nation is measured by the strength of such women and of the sons they bear. Nothing could be a greater comfort in this day of grave decision, nothing more inspiring to the high duty to which national peril now summons us all, than the example they offer.

PACIFIST TWADDLE.

Ald. Kennedy says the adoption of universal training would establish a military system like Germany's.

Why not a military system like republican France's or republican Switzerland's?

But that would not make the pacifists' point.

A TRACTION SOLUTION.

To regard Walter Fisher's new proposal for the solution of Chicago's traction difficulties merely as a compromise between the fifty year and the twenty year franchise advocates is a gross misconception. It is being called a "thirty year franchise plan," as if the thirty year feature were salient. What the plan provides is primarily a means of acquiring the traction properties, elevated and surface, for the city without spending a cent for them. It offers apparently a clear way to municipal ownership, one which avoids the Supreme court prohibition which nullifies at present our theoretical right of purchase. Mr. Fisher sets the grant at thirty years because he figures that in such a period the city can take over without payment of a cent a developed property worth about half a billion dollars, subject to indebtedness of only $220,000,000.

On its face, at any rate, Mr. Fisher's plan does not yield an iota of the city's control over the street car properties or over their operation. Control of service would lie ultimately, as it now lies, with the city council.

The city would still retain the right to take over the ownership and operation of traction properties under precisely the same terms which obtain today.

Mr. Fisher's scheme is practically to let the city's part of traction profits purchase the traction properties. And that Mr. Fisher, who ranks high among experts on franchises, puts it forward is sufficient surety that it is not visionary. The chief danger is that some one will attempt to sweat profits out of it, and that is a danger inherent in every American public work.

RAISING AN ARMY.

In the event of war with Germany, Washington correspondents inform us, the administration purposes to raise an army of half a million men. The voluntary system will be employed. The president will ask congress for power to call 500,000 volunteers.

If the president has in mind the enlargement of our present regular establishment by half a million men or to half a million men, our defense will be established on a footing better than we could obtain except under universal service. It would be possible to expand our regular army to that size if providence and the allies give us time to train them. At the end of six months or eight months we would have an army not comparable of course with trained European troops, but of real strength. There would be an enormously increased number of men in the country capable of training others, should the necessity arise.

But if the president intends to call for volunteers according to the favorite American method we shall have accomplished nothing but a stupid waste of time and treasure. Raising regiments of butchers and bakers and candlestick makers is not a hard job if the organizer has political influence and access to publicity. He need have no knowledge of military affairs, but only a good bearing and dramatic ability. There are battalions to be given away to others of political influence and good bearing, and minor constituents are satisfied with jobs as captains and lieutenants. The chief difficulty is getting privates, and that is not insuperable if there is a good slogan attached to the campaign. There would be some distinction in having been even a private in Ryan's Ghila Monsters. But if such a course is in the president's mind the nation can expect to witness another familiar round of inefficiency, ignorance, and graft, political officers (many of our copperhead congressmen would not be averse to being colonels or major generals), political pressure to take units to some front from which the individual legs of the soldiers would ache to return them. After all the excitement is over, after all the scandals about food supply and disease have been forgotten, the country will have exactly nothing to show for it beyond a lot of incompetent business men with military titles, a string of pensions, and an organization of "veterans" ready to be patriotic on any national holiday.

We beseech the president fervently not to waste America's time in any such fashion. For it is time and not money that America needs in 1917. We have no more time to spend on systems which cannot work, which have never worked, except as they made invalids where soldiers are needed. A system which will go completely to pieces as soon as the immediate emergency is over and is certain also to go to pieces in battle is something we cannot afford in America today. The country knows the penalties of the volunteer system and they are heavy. If the president insists upon its retention, let it be operated by experts and not by tailors ambitious for military honor.

Editorial of the Day

ELIMINATING THE LOAFERS.

[From the Cleveland Leader.]

The street loafer needs drastic treatment. He is a simpler problem than many of the municipal worriments. He will not, however, succumb to mere moral suasion. A sojourn in confinement is more effective than a slap on the wrist.

One city may take courage from what another accomplishes. In Baltimore, for instance, the authorities are dealing with the street loafer with a show of vigor. That city has found employment for 1,000 men, and the loafers and idlers can accept these jobs and the very reasonable wages that accompany them, or they can go to the workhouse as vagrants. In either case they will have to work.

Cleveland is probably not much different from other cities so far as affliction with street loafers is concerned, for the loafer is indifferent to geography. North, south, east, and west, he is much the same. Even the severest weather does not entirely disperse his kind. On milder days and nights they line the curbs, they huddle in entrance ways, they stand in front of places of amusement. They are a pest, a nuisance, and a menace. Where loafers are tolerated crime increases. Lawbreakers are often schooled on the curbstone. The streets become unsafe for honest men. A group of loafers not only incumbers a crowded thoroughfare, but makes it highly unpleasant for men and women pedestrians.

Suppression of the street idlers is no easy task, but no community can afford to neglect it. The lawabiding public, as well as the police and the courts, have a duty in this direction. The menace of street loafing can be removed if a community sets its hand to the task. The only men unable to secure employment in these days are the unemployable.

Those who are able to work but refuse should be made to work. The same choice can be held up to them that is held up to the idlers of Baltimore. It looks like a commendable remedy for a disagreeable infliction. The loafers should be eliminated from the streets.

FAMINE AND FERTILIZERS.

[From the New York World.]

Increasing production from Germany's not too fertile soil has been mainly due to imported fertilizers. Germany has imported 20 per cent of her foods, all her coffee, tea, rice, vegetable oils, even some potatoes. She has imported 1,853,000 metric tons of fertilizers, 7,295,000 tons of food for animals, 1,411,000 tons of oil yielding seeds—10,000,000 tons and more of "actual and potential manures." All this is cut off. The use of war bread has decreased the supply of bran for cattle.

What the food supply is in fact Germany's rulers know but do not say. What it must be, Mr. Marsh deduces, is "far below the minimum requirements of the population from now till the next crop." He can cite in support of this view a reduction of the potato crop from 50,000,000 tons to less than 30,000,000—some say even to 40,000,000 tons. Lausanne reports such a reduction in rye yield as one would expect from continued lack of manures.

This is correct deduction, yet it may not prove that food scarcity is the chief cause of German desire for peace. Wonders in food economy are possible when a resolute nation tightens its belt. The potato failure, like our own comparative one, came from a bad season, which lack of manures would accentuate. Imports from the west have never wholly stopped; from Hungary they are mighty aid.

Germany needs food. She is not necessarily on the verge of actual famine.

THE "freedom of the seas," as the phrase is used by Berlin, is an afterthought, just as the Crown Prince's merry war (we forget his exact adjective—was it froehliche?) became "the war which our enemies forced upon us." The Germans have been considered great thinkers. Since 1914 they have shown that they are even greater afterthinkers.

THE seas were free enough before 1914. During upward of a century Britannia ruled the waves, but she also charted and policed them, and the benefits of her trusteeship were shared by all nations. A sea power has always been an enlightened power; its selfishness has been an enlightened selfishness. It is not the fault of Britain that the seas are no longer free.

WINDOWS, PRO AND CON.

DR. VERNON HILL of the Chicago health department recently made a study of windows which has the virtue of being more analytical than articles on windows usually are. He gives the disadvantages of windows as:

1. First cost.
2. Care and upkeep.
3. Loss of wall space.
4. Admission of flies and other insects.
5. Admission of dirt.
6. Weakening of walls and injury to buildings.
7. Entrance of burglars.
8. Increase of heat loss.
9. Interference with mechanical ventilation.
10. Increased liability to fire and fire panic.
11. Nuisance from noise.

As an offset the advantages of windows are:

1. Admission of light.
2. Admission of air.
3. Obtaining a view of the exterior.

In discussing the advantages and disadvantages of windows he considers five types of city buildings.

A—Apartments and family dwellings.
B—Schools and churches.
C—Theaters.
D—Workshops and factories.
E—Basement restaurants, bakeries, and workrooms.

APARTMENT AND FAMILY DWELLINGS.

1. The first cost of building a window is $9.28, or $3.50 more than the first cost of the same area of brick wall.
2. The maintenance cost of a window for a year is $4.15.
3. Loss of wall space. More important than in any other type of building.
4. Admission of flies. Extremely important.
5. Admission of dirt. Importance depends on locality.
6. Weakening of walls and injury to building. The same as in all structures.
7. Entrance of burglars. Extremely important.
8. Increase of heat loss. Not as important as in factories, schools, etc.
9. Interference with mechanical ventilation. Does not apply.
10. Increased liability to fire. Not important.
11. Nuisance from noise. Depends on locality.

The advantages far outweigh these disadvantages.

SCHOOLS AND CHURCHES.

The full use of windows is justified from the standpoint of proper lighting alone. There are many other advantages. Therefore, there is no question that schools and churches should be provided with windows in abundance.

THEATERS.

Hill concludes that the use of windows in theaters is objectionable from every standpoint. To prohibit them by law is desirable; to require them would be a serious error.

WORKSHOPS AND FACTORIES.

In general workrooms with an almost continuous glass surface on at least two sides can be ventilated by the judicious use of windows if the space available for employés is approximately 1,000 cubic feet per person. While the expense of providing adequate window area is considerable and maintenance due especially to heat loss is approximately 60 per cent greater, these objections are almost nothing in proportion to the advantages derived from their use.

BASEMENT RESTAURANTS, BAKERIES AND WORKSHOPS.

The great objection to basement restaurants and bakeries is the dirt which enters through the bulkhead windows. Hill thinks that restaurants and a few types of shops will never be routed out of basements. The price of land is too high to make it possible from the economic standpoint. On the other hand, bakeries and most kinds of workshops should not be allowed in basements. If restaurants, bakeries, or workshops are allowed on the first floors, in basements, or subbasements, the law should prohibit windows that can be opened and require mechanical ventilation with air washers and temperature and humidity control.

EAT PLAIN FOOD.

X. Y. Z. writes: "Will you be kind enough to state in your column what (if anything) is known as to the cause of acetone in the urine and what the treatment and diet for this condition are in the case of a child of 3 years of age?"

REPLY.

It results from taking food which is too rich. If you will give the child more vegetables, fruit, cereals, and bread, and less cream, milk, butter, lean and fat meat, and gravy, the acetonuria will disappear.

REMOVAL OF TONSILS.

Mrs. I. C. writes: "1. When is the best time to have one's tonsils removed, in winter or summer? 2. Is it all right to have them cut out when the throat is sore or wait till it is healed up?"

REPLY.

1. Either time will be all right.
2. Either. A hospital under my control followed the policy of removing tonsils in needful cases during convalescence from scarlet fever and diphtheria. No harmful effects followed. The effects were advantageous.

LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY

[Copyright: 1917: By the Brentwood Co.]

KING NICHOLAS of Montenegro, now in his seventy-sixth year, has developed into something of a nuisance to the powers of the entente, and they have brought every influence to bear to induce him to abdicate his rights to the throne of Montenegro in favor of his grandson, Prince Alexander of Serbia, with the object of uniting the two countries after the war, for the purposes of mutual strength and of economic development. His prime minister, Radovitch, and his ministers, the Gens. Voutotich and Matnovitch, have all three, at the instance of the allied governments, urged him to abdicate, and in the face of his obstinate refusal have resigned and their example has been followed by Capt. Seferovitch, the Montenegrin consul in New York, and by the diplomatic and consular representatives of Montenegro in other foreign cities and capitals.

There are many reasons why not only the entente powers but also the people of Montenegro desire the abdication of the king. His eldest son, the Crown Prince Danilo, married to a German princess, has no children and is a ne'er-do-well, who has furnished many chapters to the chroniques scandaleuses of the courts of Europe. The king's second son, and, I may add, his favorite, namely, Prince Mirko, threw in his lot with the Austrians when they invaded Montenegro and has ever since made his home with his beautiful wife, Natalie Constantinovitch, at Vienna. Both he, therefore, and his children have disqualified themselves by this action, in the eyes of the allies, from ever occupying the throne of Montenegro. King Nicholas' youngest son, Prince Peter, is insignificant. Moreover, the conduct of old King Nicholas himself, in abandoning his country and his people to the Austrian invader without making any serious attempt at resistance, has always been shrouded in a good deal of unpleasant mystery.

On leaving Montenegro he betook himself to Italy, where he found that he was not welcome. Proceeding to France, the government of that country placed at his disposal a large and handsome villa in the most picturesque portion of the city of Lyons, and when some months later he got tired of the place and insisted that the climate of Lyons was injurious to his health, the French government leased a fully furnished, very large and fine château, about twelve miles distant from Bordeaux, for his own use. He suffered cruelly from ennui in both places and found no one willing or capable of losing enough money to him at cards to render any game interesting. For he is passionately fond of cards and a reckless gambler, most of the difficulties of his long and eventful reign having been due to monetary troubles arising from his losses at play.

The king, as an old soldier, demanded permission to visit the front. The French government found it difficult to refuse this to him, and when he got back to Paris after obtaining a glimpse of Verdun and of the fighting on the Somme, he absolutely declined to leave the capital, so much did he enjoy himself there. Accordingly, the French government found itself compelled to lease the two spacious villas, 56 and 58 Boulevard Victor Hugo, in the Parisian suburb known as Neuilly-sur-Seine.

The king himself and his family occupy 58, while his gentlemen and ladies in waiting, as well as his bodyguard, composed of eighteen men and two officers, are quartered in 56. Nor is this all. The French government was likewise obliged to lease a large apartment house at No. 9 Rue Ancelle at Neuilly-sur-Seine for the use of the cabinet ministers and the government administration of Montenegro, the Montenegrin flag floating from its roof and from its first floor balcony, indicating that it is the seat of government of the Black Mountain, since all Montenegro is now in the hands of the Austrians.

At the time when King Nicholas thus established himself in Paris late last fall, I predicted in these letters that trouble would ensue and that he would find plenty of people in Paris willing to play cards with him as long as his losses were footed by the French government. France, Great Britain, and Russia have been contributing ever since he left Montenegro a sum of $80,000 a month, which was supposed to cover his own expenses as well as those of his court and government, Italy, where he was known too well, absolutely refusing to subscribe. King Nicholas has been complaining bitterly that this very generous allowance is totally inadequate to meet the expenses of his existence and of that of his court and government in Paris, and has been harassing the French, English, and Russian governments for an increase to such an extent that they have become very weary of his importunities and their patience has reached its extreme limits.

That is why they are insisting on his abdication. They do not see why they should go on paying for the maintenance of a perfectly useless royal court and still more useless government administration of Montenegro in Paris when there is no prospect whatsoever of the king's being restored to the throne, and when it has been quite decided by them that Montenegro is to be united to Serbia under the scepter of Crown Prince Alexander of Serbia, in accordance with the desire of the people of these two sister nations. The money which is now being wasted upon the sham court and still more sham Montenegrin government administration at Neuilly-sur-Seine could, in the opinion of the powers of the entente, be much more usefully employed in the reconquest of Montenegro and also of that portion of Serbia which is still in the hands of the enemy.

One of these days we shall learn that the king has abdicated. And then the readers of these letters will know that he has done so under compulsion and the reasons which have prompted the allied powers to exact of him the sacrifice of his purely nominal throne.

King Gustavus of Sweden has delegated Bishop Lonegren of Harnosand to visit the United States for the purpose of attending, as the representative of the Lutheran church of Sweden, the impending celebration in America of the quadricentennial of the foundation of Lutheranism.

The Lutheran state churches of Scandinavia, unlike those of Germany, have their full fledged Episcopal hierarchy, and whereas Denmark and Norway are content with bishops, Sweden has in addition an archbishop, namely, the Archbishop of Upsala, who is also ex-officio chancellor of the principal and oldest university of the kingdom in that city. The cathedral of the archbishop contains the tomb of King Gustavus Vasa, dates from the year 1260, and in the silver shrine to the right of the altar are the relics of the national patron saint, Eric. Among the present primate's predecessors have been the Most Reverend Archbishop Knud von Scheele, who made an episcopal tour of the United States seven years ago, incidentally calling upon President Taft at the White House to deliver to him a personal message of good will and of friendship from his sovereign.

ALBANY PARK PROTESTS.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—[To the Friend of the People.]—Is there any reason why people located in Albany Park should have such very poor transportation service? The traffic on both Kedzie and Lawrence avenue car lines is very heavy. Wonder what our alderman has done toward rectifying this trouble? Surely some one has complained to him. The cars line up at Foster avenue by fours and fives and stay there until they are good and ready to go. Strange they cannot run as many surface cars as they do the Ravenswood elevated trains. E. B. P.

A number of traffic checks made by this department show that the service on the above lines is adequate to handle the traffic and that the headway between cars is reasonable. The aldermen who represent the wards through which these lines are operated have been persistent in their efforts to obtain service, and the service improvements on both lines during the last two or three years have kept pace with the building up of the territory through which they run. Cars on the Kedzie avenue line are seriously obstructed whenever the weather is bad, and the cars on the Lawrence avenue line are not only subject to the same obstruction but also have to contend with delays at two steam railroad crossings. It is obvious that trains operated over a private right of way on the surface and then over an elevated structure can maintain a more uniform headway than cars operated on a public street.

JOHN P. GARNER,
Commissioner of Public Service.

CONCRETE MUST BE RELAID.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—[To the Friend of the People.]—The approach to the North Crawford avenue car tracks at Bryn Mawr avenue is a menace to drivers of vehicles. Cannot conditions be remedied? CHARLES STONBERG.

In order to correct the condition noted it will be necessary to relay the asphaltic concrete. This work cannot be done until the spring. We have taken the matter up with the surface lines and will have the condition remedied as soon as possible.

Superintendent of Streets.

LEWIS-CHAMPLIN SCHOOL.

Chicago, Feb. 1.—[To the Friend of the People.]—The old Lewis-Champlin school, which is in the Englewood group, has not been occupied during the present term, as the new building is now in commission. The old building is but about twelve to fifteen feet from the new one and is not only a source of danger from fire, but shuts off the daylight from several rooms in the new building, including the first year grade, so that it is necessary to use artificial light a great deal of the time. If the tearing down of the old building has been authorized can you ascertain what is delaying the work? C. E. H.

We had hoped to be able to wreck the old Lewis-Champlin building on the completion of the new Champlin school, but find that the Lewis-Champlin school building is now being used as an adjunct to the Englewood High school for both day and evening schools pending the erection of an addition to that school commensurate with its needs.

JOHN D. SHOOP,
Superintendent of Schools.

DO NOT PAY USURY.

Chicago, Feb. 1.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—My son has become enmeshed in the nets of loan sharks. He is paying the principal over and over again because of the exorbitant interest. Is there nothing that can be done to prevent the extortion of this usurious interest? MOTHER.

The legal rate of interest for pawnbrokers is 3 per cent a month—for loan sharks 7 per cent a year. If you are charged at a greater rate take matter to a competent lawyer.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

MR. BRAND'S POSITION.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—I beg leave to request that you publish this letter.

I know very well that my views would gain a much wider publicity when published in THE TRIBUNE than when published in my own paper.

In the first place I want to say that I was born and raised in Chicago. It is therefore unnatural and impossible for me to have loyalty for any country except the United States of North America. I am accused of predicting or threatening a race war if war breaks out between the United States and Germany. That is entirely false. I never predicted nor threatened a race war. In fact, it is not my nature to threaten anyway. Moreover, to make a threat one must have something with which to back it up. I have nothing with which to back up a threat that a race war would break out in the United States. It would have been foolish to have made a threat, consequently I did not make any. Nor did I make a prediction. I expressed the fear that a race war would break out unless the United States exhausted all peaceable means before entering into a war. It seems to me that it is very important to remember that my statement was not unqualified, but was decidedly a qualified statement.

Considering that the United States is a melting pot of many nationalities, does it seem unreasonable to fear that trouble will break out among these many nationalities somewhere in case the United States gets into the European war without provocation having been sufficient to make the millions of citizens believe that all peaceful procedures have proven futile and that therefore the United States was forced into a war?

The above is the thought expressed in my editorial last Sunday.

I firmly believe and I fervently hope that the United States will never declare war upon any nation unless all peaceful means have been tried and proven futile.

Nowhere in my editorial did I mention German-Americans. In fact, the assumption that I was referring particularly to any one group of foreign born citizens is a misstatement and any unprejudiced reader of my editorial of last Sunday must concede the truth of this assertion.

My papers have consistently fought for fair play for Germany and the cause of her allies. There are always two sides to every question. In order to arrive at a just decision the American people should know both sides to the European question. The whole truth concerning both groups of belligerents and their tactics should be known by our people if the historic fairness of America is to be maintained in its decisions.

I am not upholding Germany against the United States. I never did so. Nor did my papers ever uphold Germany's cause against the best interests of the United States. Any assertions to that effect are based upon misunderstanding or are willfully false.

As an American born citizen I certainly would never uphold any country's cause against that of my own country.

But when the discussion is as to whether Germany's cause or Great Britain's cause is the most just and right, then I am permitted to have the opinion that Germany's cause is more to the interest of the United States than is Great Britain's cause. If I am wrong in that contention then I have nevertheless done my country a good service by bringing to public notice the reasons why I think I am right.

I have no deep attachment for any foreign nation. My whole soul is wrapped up in the good of the United States.

The company that publishes the Illinois Staats Zeitung and allied newspapers is an Illinois corporation of which I own 90 per cent of the stock, and all other stockholders are American citizens and no money or favors have ever been received by the Illinois Publishing company nor by me for paying any of the debts of this company nor for influencing in the slightest degree any of its utterances or its policies. This enterprise is entirely an American enterprise. Each principle championed by my papers is done so because of a firm conviction that the best interests of America are served thereby.

HORACE L. BRAND,
Publisher Staats Zeitung.

FROM A STRAPHANGER.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—In answer to Mr. Hyde's article I am one of the simps who hang onto the straps. I disagree with Mr. Hyde. There is no row between the street car corporation and the straphangers. Absolute power on one side and peaceful submission on the other do not constitute a row. You know the street car company has the facilities to give us quick and comfortable transportation and seats at all times. If the street car company gave us decent transportation there would be no talk of long term franchises.

The $20,000,000 traction fund about which you speak is not for the people. It is like a saving fund in one of our trade unions. The interests and politicians will get it to spend as they see fit. Rest assured that the traction fund will not be used for the benefit of the straphangers.

I fail to see how Yerkes or any other ruler could treat us any worse than the supervising engineers are treating us today, and you say the supervising engineers represent the people and rule the street car system. If that is so they are most expensive and incompetent rulers. The system of operating street cars is a travesty on justice. I believe it is the most expensive in the world.

BRITISH REPORT IMPORTANT GAIN ON FRENCH FRONT

Troops Carry Whole Fort Grandcourt and Peril Great Base.

FRENCH FRONT

BRITISH

LONDON, Feb. 7.—As a result of our continuous pressure on both banks of the Ancre river, the enemy has been forced to evacuate the village of Grandcourt, which is now entirely in our possession, together with a defensive work adjoining it. We secured a few prisoners. During the operations of the last few days the enemy suffered heavy losses in the neighborhood.

A hostile raid attempted during the night in the neighborhood of Gueudecourt broke down under our barrage. Early last night we entered the enemy's lines southwest of La Bassee and killed a number of Germans and destroyed several dugouts; we took a few prisoners.

The mutual artillery activity was most marked north of the Somme in the neighborhood of Courcelette and between Armentieres and Ypres. An effective counter battery work was carried out by us during the day at a number of places along our front.

AVIATION.

Bombing operations by our airplanes continued yesterday with success. There were many air fights. Three German machines were driven down damaged; two of ours are missing.

FRENCH

PARIS, Feb. 7.—In the Lorraine district, after a spirited bombardment in the vicinity of Embermenil, German forces yesterday attacked a salient of our lines. A counter attack followed immediately and the enemy was driven out of the advanced positions where he had secured a footing. Our line was entirely reëstablished.

We have taken some prisoners in the forest of Parroy, south of Gremecey, and in tht Domevre sector.

On the right bank of the river Meuse during the night we conducted successfully several raids which brought us in about twenty prisoners.

In Upper Alsace an enemy attack in the region of Seppois was completely checked by our fire.

NIGHT STATEMENT.

There were patrol encounters south of the Somme in the region of Deniecourt and east of Soissons near Vailly.

In the Argonne German surprise attack on one of our trenches in the direction of Boureilles only resulted in enemy losses. Artillery fighting was quite active in the sectors of Le Mort Homme, Louvemont, and Les Chambrettes. Calm prevailed everywhere else.

AVIATION.

During the day of Feb. 6 three enemy airplanes were brought down by French pilots. These machines were the twentieth enemy airplane to fall in an engagement with Lieut. Huerteaux; the fifth for Adj. Casale, and the sixth for Adj. Madon.

German airplanes yesterday threw down several bombs on Dunkirk. No one was injured and no damage resulted.

GERMAN

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—Western front—Because of gloomy weather the fighting activity was in excess of the normal in only a few sectors.

Southwest of Sennheim [Alsace] a French company attacked before noon after strong artillery fire, but was repulsed and left several prisoners in our hands.

In successful reconnoitering raids near the coast, on both sides of the Ancre, on the northeast front of Verdun and near Parroy forest, in Lorraine, sixty prisoners were taken and three machine guns captured.

AVIATION.

An English squadron made an attack on Bruges. Through a hit on a school one woman and sixteen Belgian children were made victims. No material damage was done.

BELGIAN

PARIS, Feb. 7.—In the region of Ramscapelle and Dixmude and in the direction of Steenstraete there was artillery activity on both sides during the afternoon and violent bomb fighting in the neighborhood of Het Sas.

RUSSIAN FRONT

RUSSIAN

PETROGRAD, Feb. 7.—On the Beresina river the enemy, after a violent bombardment of our position in the region of the villago of Zaberesina, undertook an offensive against our trenches in the neighborhood of that village. He succeeded in taking a small island in the river and a trench occupied by one of our companies. A counter attack by our reinforcements threw the enemy back into his own trenches.

GERMAN

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—Eastern front: Front of Prince Leopold—On the Beresina raiding detachments entered the hostile lines and returned, after destroying the dugouts, with two Russian officers and fifty men as prisoners and nine mine throwers. Also on the Kovel-Lutsk railroad an attack by storming detachments was completely successful, eighteen prisoners and one mine thrower being brought back from the Russian trenches there.

Front of Archduke Joseph—Northeast of Kirlibaba an attack by two hostile companies failed.

ROUMANIAN FRONT

RUSSIAN

PETROGRAD, Feb. 7.—Our advance guards dislodged the enemy from trenches in the region south of the river Slonicu and repulsed enemy counter attacks. During the course of the night the enemy, two companies strong, crossed the Sereth, which is frozen, in the region of Surai, southeast of Focsani, and attacked our trenches. He was driven over the river by our fire.

GERMAN

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—Army group of Field Marshal von Mackensen: Along the Putna and the Sereth there was a temporary increase in artillery fire; several outpost skirmishes occurred.

TIGRIS FRONT

TURKISH

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—Tigris front: South of the Tigris there has been a violent artillery combat. On the Felahie position there have been infantry and artillery firing and combats between reconnoitering patrols, which resulted in our favor. From intelligence received from prisoners it has been ascertained that during the combat Feb. 1 two hostile battalions, each of 700 men, which succeeded in entering our trenches, were completely annihilated.

PERSIAN FRONT

TURKISH

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—We captured from the enemy a caravan of 335 loaded camels.

BLACK SEA

TURKISH

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—A hostile ship which was attempting to approach a hostile cruiser formerly sunk by us near Cashellorizo, was sunk by our artillery fire.

MACED NIAN FRONT

GERMAN

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—In the bend of the Cerna and on both banks of the Vardar there were strong bursts of artillery fire at isolated points. Otherwise there was little fighting activity.

CAUCASUS FRONT

TURKISH

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—We have repulsed hostile attempts to attack our right wing. According to news received of our shelling of Tenedos, one anti-aircraft squadron and the lighthouses of the island were destroyed and eight lighters sunk. Inhabitants who fled from Tenedos declared there was no hospital on the island, and therefore the enemy, by hoisting Red Cross flags at the moment of the shelling, violated anew the Geneva convention.

RUSSIAN

PETROGRAD, Feb. 7.—Caucasus front—There is nothing to report.

ITALIAN FRONT

ITALIAN

ROME, Feb. 7.—Trentino front—The artillery fighting was more intense in the Astico valley. In the Sugana valley an enemy detachment which attempted to attack our advanced position on Monte Maso was put to flight, leaving arms and munitions on the ground.

Julian front—Artillery fighting occurred. The enemy fired a few rounds on Goritz.

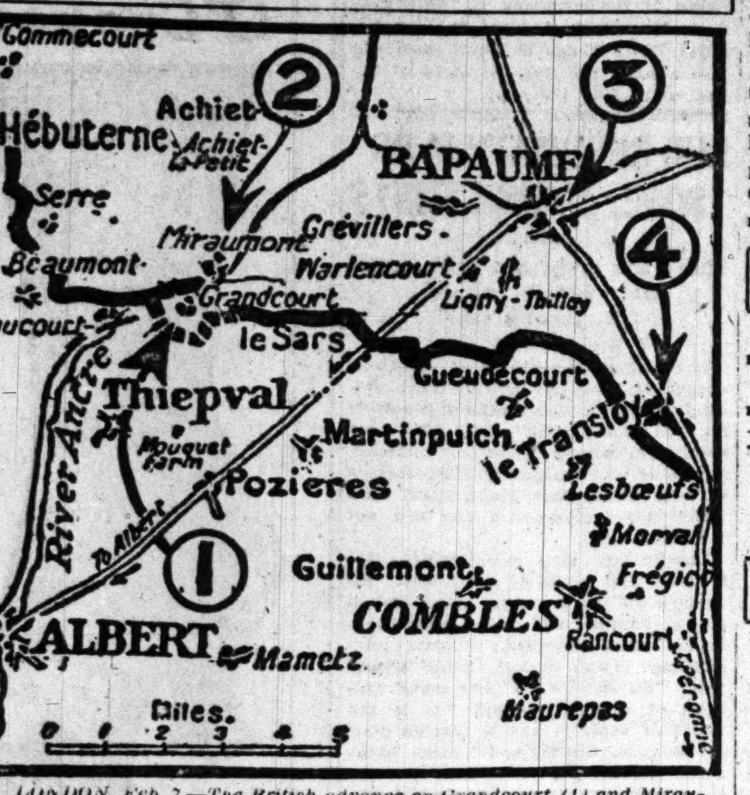
SUPPLEMENTARY

GERMAN

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—It is officially reported from all fronts that there was only fighting activity of limited character.

THE FALL OF GRANDCOURT

Showing Progress of British Drive Toward Bapaume Fortress.



LONDON, Feb. 7.—The British advance on Grandcourt (1) and Miraumont (2), two fortresses covering Bapaume (3) from the west, has been successfully progressing for the last few days. The capture of Grandcourt village, which the British official statement says is now entirely in British possession, is regarded as of considerable importance. The British troops now seriously threaten the strong German position at Le Transloy (4).

THE WAR A YEAR AGO

Feb. 8, 1916.

Germans renewed vigorous attack on French trenches northeast of Neuville.

German and Turkish consuls and thirty others indicted by federal grand jury in San Francisco for alleged conspiracy to wreck munition plants and to furnish supplies to German war vessels at the commencement of the war.

SAY GERMANS MAKE SLAVES IN ROUMANIA

PARIS, Feb. 7.—The Roumanian minister of foreign affairs telegraphed today to the Roumanian legation in Paris that Germany has begun to transport for internment in Germany all Roumanian males from 16 to 67 years of age although the French, Russians, Italians and Portuguese, protected by the Spanish legation, are being left in the country.

"This treatment, so the Germans say," reads the telegram, "is because Roumania gave up to Russia the Germans in its power and that these were transported to Siberia. It is absolutely false that Roumania has ever delivered German subjects to Russia. It has not then, been possible for them to be sent to Siberia."

SECRET SERVICE IN CHICAGO NOW ON WAR BASIS

Three Bureaus United and Corps of Volunteers Enlisted.

Operations of the United States secret service in running down persons and organizations suspected of hostility to this country in its relations with Germany, have begun in earnest, it is believed. The local force has been doubled. Hinton G. Clabaugh, chief of the local bureau of investigation yesterday put into execution an intelligence system that covers the whole district of northern Illinois.

The chief wartime aim of the intelligence system will be the prevention of the dissemination of any information that will be of value to an enemy government. It also will seek to prevent sympathizers of a hostile country from committing any act that will hinder the operations of the army and navy or embarrass the military.

In times of peace the secret service department is divided into three branches, the postal inspection, the counterfeit department, and the bureau of investigation. After the break with Germany, the branches were united and Hinton G. Clabaugh has been made chief of the combined system, with Capt. Thomas I. Porter serving as director of activities.

The scope of secret service activities is wide. Government agents will work as laborers in munition factories, serve as office boys, deck hands, and pose as German sympathizers. In the hands of Mr. Clabaugh are the names of several thousand persons living in the northern Illinois district who have offered their services free of charge as detectives.

FRANCE TO GO ON WAR BREAD DIET SHORTLY

Potato Famine Facing Britain, Report—U. S. Is Warned.

PARIS, Feb. 7.—War bread soon will make its appearance in France. What kind it will be has not yet been definitely decided, but experiments now are being made with a new bread that will contain more whole wheat flour than that now sold.

POTATO FAMINE FOR BRITAIN?

LONDON, Feb. 7.—George Coleman, writing from Covent Garden market to the London Times, predicts there will be a potato famine in Great Britain by May next. Coleman has been in the potato trade for forty-seven years and bases his prediction on past experience.

URGES U. S. MOBILIZE FOOD.

New York, Feb. 7.—Urgent necessity for the mobilization of the nation's food supply in the event of war was emphasized strongly in a statement issued here today by the National Agricultural society, of which James Wilson of Iowa, secretary of agriculture in the administrations of Presidents McKinley, Roosevelt, and Taft, is president.

"In the event of war, with its mobilizations of the man power of the nation, what provision should be made for the labor necessary to plant and harvest the crops essential to our food supply?" the statement asks.

"These items are vital to our well being—quite as vital, we venture to suggest, as many matters receiving infinitely more attention."

Says Entente Decided on Peace This Summer

LONDON, Feb. 7.—Addressing a meeting in London tonight John Hodge, minister of labor, said he thought he was giving away no secret in saying that at the recent conference between representatives of the entente allies the determination had been arrived at to terminate the war by the end of summer.

Jiffy-Jell

The Supreme Dessert

A Delicious Gelatine Dessert With the Real Fresh Fruit Flavor

The Gelatine Expert

Mr. Otis E. Glidden has for 17 years been the leading expert in gelatine desserts. The best desserts of this kind which have ever appeared are of his creation.

He has traveled Europe to consult experts there, and learn of their improvements.

In Jiffy-Jell he has produced a gelatine dessert of such delicious and exquisite flavor that in the short space of six months it has become known the country over as the "Supreme Dessert."

Sealed in Vials

To preserve these flavors—to keep its freshness and zest—he seals it up in vials. So each package contains a sealed glass vial.

In this way he also avoids the scalding of the flavor, for in Jiffy-Jell the flavors are not added until the hot water that is poured on the jelly powder has partly cooled.

Thus you get the real tang of the fresh fruit itself.

The Fruit Flavor

Mr. Glidden's first step was to get away from artificial flavors.

He found a way to make his flavors from the real fruit juice. He did this by concentrating the fresh fruit juice. Thus in a few drops he is able to get the flavor of much fruit. So in Jiffy-Jell you get the rich, fresh, natural flavor. It is not like imitations that you know.

SENATE VOTES INDORSEMENT OF PRESIDENT

Upholds Break, 78 to 5, as Crisis in U. S. Affairs Looms Nearer.

appeared before us at the capitol to tell us he had broken with Germany."

"Does this come before us merely with the desire of the senator to have it adopted, or because the senator understands the president to favor such action?"

"I have had no consultation with the president," Senator Stone answered. "Neither have I consulted with any executive official."

"Does the president think this will uphold his hands in this emergency?" persisted Senator Underwood.

"I hardly know what the president thinks. I thought it would be of advantage for the senate to say officially that it approves the action taken."

An "Ill Advised Action."

"If the president desired in this emergency affirmative action by the senate," said Senator Underwood, "I, for one, would give it unhesitatingly and ungrudgingly; but if it has been the desire of the president, and he has not felt it necessary that this resolution be passed, it should not have been brought here. It is an ill advised, ill timed action by the senator from Missouri. The senator from Missouri, as chairman of the foreign relations committee, should uphold the hands of the president, but he should know that is what he is doing before he acts. We should not be forced to an ill considered and immature judgment. Because an adverse vote on this measure might be construed by foreign countries as an indication that the American people were not ready to stand by the president to the last man and the last dollar, I shall vote for the resolution."

Kirby Is Against It.

Senator Kirby, the new senator from Arkansas, a Democrat, declared that he would not support the Stone resolution.

"I think it is singularly unfortunate," he said, "that the resolution was placed before the senate at this time.

"The time has not come when we should commit ourselves, by the adoption of this resolution, to any policy that the president may hereafter pursue. Under the constitution the president has no power to declare war, but he has in fact the power to plunge the nation into war and to make it necessary for congress to declare it; and he has almost done so.

"If war shall come, if we shall declare war—and I shall vote against that also—let the majority in this country rule. I say let the last dollar and the last man be sent and be given freely to uphold the declaration of this country, whether it be right or wrong."

Sherman for Unity.

"There are prices paid for peace greater than the priceless cost of war," declared Senator Sherman, in announcing his decision to vote for the resolution of approval. He said the resolution must be passed to show Germany that America stands as one. "Its rejection," he declared, "would be regarded as an act of national cowardice."

Calling attention to the fact he voted for the resolution to warn Americans not to travel on belligerent ships, Senator Sherman said:

"I did that in order that we might avoid the difficulties which now confront us. That presented an entirely different question. The allies have not destroyed lives in the prosecution of their blockade, although they have pursued illegal practices. I discriminate against practices that concern only insensible merchandise and practices that murder innocent women and children.

"If we are not ready to maintain the ideals of our fathers, let us abdicate an American citizenship and proclaim to the world our cowardice." After denouncing "ruthless warfare," Senator Sherman said: "Even Attila the Hun made provision for the safety of women and children."

Townsend Condemns Stone.

Senator Townsend of Michigan condemned the action of Senator Stone in forcing the senate to go on record on the question at this time, but said that under the circumstances he would vote for the resolution. After he had concluded Senator Stone remarked that "the senator from Michigan has worked the bile off his weakened stomach."

"The president in taking the action he did," said Senator Lodge, "did what was demanded by the honor, the safety, and the future security of the United States. In the exercise of his constitutional duty, and with the high responsibility of his office resting upon him, the president has taken this action. It has placed us in controversy and created a strained situation with a foreign nation.

"Under the circumstances, so far as I am concerned, party lines vanish, and any criticism of the past or any criticism of the present is silenced for me.

"The president has taken grave action I feel it to be my duty to support him to the utmost of my power. He is the president of my country. And if, as we all pray, further difficulties are to be avoided and we are to be saved from war, there is one step more important than any other, if we are to preserve our peace under existing conditions, and that is to show to the people of the country that we are without divisions at this moment; that we are thinking of the United States as its representatives on all international questions.

"Our first duty is to stand together in this controversy. Let it be known that the president has the congress and the people of his country, no matter what their race or origin, behind him in the one simple character of American citizens."

Too Late to Back Down.

Senator Smith of Michigan, Republican, urged support of the president.

"We are face to face, in my opinion, with a very delicate and trying situation," he said. "If there was any error in the course which has been pursued—and I do not assert that there was—it is now too late to rectify it.

"Our diplomatic relations with Germany have been severed by executive order and international confusion and dismay have superseded the calm, dispassionate, and sympathetic attitude of the American people toward those engaged in an awful struggle for existence. Whether this situation could have been avoided or not, it is now useless to discuss. The president has committed the country, at least to this extent; and, no matter how senators may have differed with him regarding the wisdom or necessity for the step, it has been taken and it will be a national humiliation now to repudiate his course."

THE DAY IN CONGRESS

SOCIALISTS CALL MEETING OF ALL OPPOSED TO WAR

Submarine Issue Termed 'Frivolous Pretext' in Proclamation.

Socialist leaders of Chicago have issued a proclamation against war with Germany and called a massmeeting, to be held in Hodcarriers' hall, Green and Harrison streets, tomorrow night, to urge the workers of Chicago to join in the protest.

Ald. Rodriguez and Kennedy, the two Socialist members of the city council, together with Eugene V. Debs, Adolph Germer, May Wood Simons, and Robert H. Howe will speak.

More than 200,000 copies of the proclamation against war and the call to the workers to oppose the break between Germany and the United States were placed in circulation yesterday.

The proclamation in part says:

"The policy of unrestricted submarine warfare announced by the German government is most ruthless and inhuman—but so is war as a whole, and so are all methods applied on both sides. War is wholesale murder. War is the climax of utter lawlessness and it is idle to prate about lawful or lawless methods of warfare.

"The workers of America have no quarrel with the workers of any other country. The German submarine warfare does not threaten our national integrity or independence or any right of fundamental importance to the people. It would strike only those parasitic classes that have been making huge profits by manufacturing instruments of death or by taking away our food and selling it at exorbitant prices to the fighting armies of Europe.

"Workers of America, awake! Urge our government to warn all Ameririsk."

"Down with war! Down with the inhuman social system that breeds war! Long live peace, long live the international solidarity of the workers of all nations!"

ARMY RESERVE OFFICERS HERE PLAN SERVICE

Preparation for active service will be discussed at a banquet of the Officers' Reserve corps, U. S. A., central department, in the Hotel La Salle next Tuesday evening, according to plans made yesterday.

The corps is composed of volunteer officers commissioned by the president.

RUB RHEUMATISM OR SORE, ACHING JOINTS

Rheumatism is "pain only." Not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Stop drugging. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacob's Oil" right into your sore, stiff, aching joints and muscles, and relief comes instantly. "St. Jacob's Oil" is a harmless rheumatism cure which never disappoints and can not burn the skin.

Limber up! Quit complaining! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacob's Oil" at any drug store, and in just a moment you'll be free from rheumatic pain, soreness, stiffness and swelling. Don't suffer! Relief awaits you. "St. Jacob's Oil" has cured millions of rheumatism sufferers in the last half century, and is just as good for sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, backache, sprains.—Advertisement.

What the Elliott-Fisher Co. discovered about The Dictaphone

It is a peculiarly valuable endorsement of the intrinsic value of The Dictaphone that the makers of another modern efficiency machine, the standard in its field, should have adopted it for use in their own offices.

In 1915 the Elliott-Fisher Company, leaders in the Bookkeeping Machine field, judged it was time for them to dictate to The Dictaphone.

So first they proved it. Then The Dictaphone was installed. It was found to be supremely practical and useful in saving the time and energy of some of the firm's most valuable men.

They are now dictating to The Dictaphone in the Sales, Purchasing, Advertising, Credit and Treasurer's Departments. And each day's work vindicates the wisdom of the decision to do away with the old fashioned wasteful system of shorthand dictation.

The Elliott-Fisher experience duplicates that of hundreds of firms, some of which write only twenty letters a day and some a thousand. The Dictaphone principle is always sound.

Find out about The Dictaphone for your business; let us send you "The Man at the Desk." It tells the whole absorbing story of The Dictaphone.

500 WOMEN SIGN FOR RED CROSS WORK IN 2 DAYS

Committee Plans Courses of Study—Instructors Are Named.

At a meeting of the committee on instruction of the woman's branch of the Red Cross in the Tower building yesterday an outline was prepared of the work which hundreds of women have signed to take. The work is designed to prepare women for service at home as well as at the front in case of war. It includes:

Scientific care of dependent families of soldiers; care of refugees; relief work for wounded soldiers and sailors; preparation of hospital supplies; preparation of comforts for soldiers; instruction of other women in Red Cross work; general work under the guidance of physicians or nurses in civil or military hospitals; care of troops passing through the city.

These Take Pledge.

Those who take all the courses offered will be able to serve in any military hospital, base or field.

Among those who have signed to take the work are Miss Kathleen Bertrand, [illegible] Lake Shore drive; Mrs. Lawrence [illegible], [illegible] Bellevue place; Miss Mary [illegible], [illegible] East Elm street; Miss Dorothy Edwards, 1501 East Sixty-sixth place; Mrs. Ray Atherton, 15 West Burton place; Miss Gertrude Chandler, 5427 Blackstone avenue; Mrs. Justine L. Allen, Hyde Park hotel; Miss Vieva Moulton, 6140 Woodlawn avenue, and Mrs. Ralph Mojeske, 1216 Astor street.

Red Cross Organizes.

At a meeting of the first aid committee of the Red Cross this afternoon a plan will be outlined for organizing the employés of local firms to be used in case of war as auxiliaries to the regular service. Dr. W. H. Gentles, chairman, will have charge of the work. The men will wear the regular United States army uniform in case they are called into the service.

The menu cards on all dining cars of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad hereafter will carry the words of Stephen Decatur which appear at the head of the editorial page of THE TRIBUNE: "Our country! In her intercourse with foreign nations may she always be in the right; but our country, right or wrong."

Maj. Bell Arrives.

Maj. Ola Bell, United States cavalry, has arrived to take charge of the military training at the University of Chicago. He has been in charge of similar work at the Pennsylvania State school.

"The work will be entirely voluntary on the part of the students," the major declared yesterday. "The equipment, other than the uniforms, will be furnished by the government. At first only infantry work will be given. Signal, hospital, and engineering corps will be formed later.

"After a student has finished training he will be permitted to join the reserve officers corps of the army, with a rank according to that he attained in the university. Drilling will begin as soon as a time can be arranged for it by the faculty. Enrollment will begin at once."

ILLINOIS CLOSER TO REFERENDUM ON PROHIBITION

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 7.—[Special.]—Illinois is close to a referendum vote on state-wide prohibition, with the men and women voting on even terms. The senate sent the Anti-Saloon league's state-wide bill to third reading without amendment and undoubtedly will pass it next Tuesday. It is a special order for Tuesday morning, and on three record roll calls this morning the drys rallied thirty-three votes—seven more than sufficient.

The house, as established by a close poll made today, is one short of the necessary seventy-seven votes required to pass the bill. The wets claim they have eight majority. Two of their claimed supporters went into the dry camp during the day. The elections committee dismissed four contests this afternoon. One of these came from the Galesburg district, where former Representative Basel, a dry, seemed to have every right to a recount.

The wet majority kicked Basel's case out of court and strong condemnation has been heard, followed by renewed tactics on the part of the drys that may transform the claimed wet majority in the house to one that will submit the bill to a referendum.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! Is tongue coated, breath feverish and stomach sour?

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhœa, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Advertisement.

INTERSTATE TWINS

Stork Beats Express Train. One Baby Was Born in Indiana and Other in Ohio.

Cledith Deshler Hart and Vivian Holgate Hart

Mr. and Mrs. A. Everett Hart of Evanston returned from Zanesville, O., yesterday. As they alighted from the train Mr. Hart swung a suitcase in one hand and a large clothesbasket covered over with a downy white blanket in the other. The clothesbasket, being an unusual bit of luggage, attracted attention. "What d'ye t'ink o' a swell guy like dat carryin' home de week's washin'?" commented a gamin.

Mr. Hart with great care placed the clothesbasket in a big touring car. Once inside out of the cold Mrs. Hart turned down the blanket. Two baby faces blinked up at her and one of them said "Goo."

"The week's washing" proved to be the interstate twins born on board a train Saturday, Jan. 20, when the stork beat the express into Zanesville, whither Mr. and Mrs. Hart were bound. One baby was born in Indiana and the other in Ohio. They have been named Cledith Deshler and Vivian Holgate Hart. Their grandfather is E. Orris Hart, Chicago real estate operator.

FREE SCHOOLS FROM COUNCIL, NEW BILL'S AIM

Pick Chicago Teachers by Merit, Senate Measure Urges.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 17.—[Special.]—Chicago's board of education difficulties held the legislative spotlight today. In the senate, after a sharp debate, Senator Baldwin's bill, divorcing the board of education from the city council, and eliminating the latter from all participation in school board affairs, beyond the confirmation of the trustees, was reported favorably. Senator Hull voted in the negative against a favorable report.

Representative Carl Mueller of the Lake View district in the house introduced a bill brought to Springfield by Ralph C. Otis, one of the members of the board.

Creates Board of Eleven Trustees.

The Otis bill creates a board of eleven trustees, with terms of five years each, two members to be appointed yearly by the mayor with the confirmation of the council. The board elects its own officers. New statutory officers are a superintendent of education; a business manager and an attorney, each to head his own department, with a fixed term of three years each.

The board may acquire property by purchase or otherwise, without council approval; may erect all school buildings; may issue bonds for the acquirement and construction of buildings; and may issue tax anticipation warrants up to 75 per cent of the total.

Three on Examining Board.

A board of three examiners is created to examine all applicants for teachers and certificates shall be granted gratuitously. Appointment and promotion of teachers is for merit only and after a probationary period of three years teachers' positions shall be permanent, subject to charges and trials.

COUNCIL REPORT DITCHED.

John W. Eckhart, vice president of the school board, learned yesterday that City Clerk Siman had sent literature to all school principals recommending Ald. Robert M. Buck's bill for an elective paid school board. The principals were asked to distribute the literature among the teachers.

"I wrote to Mr. Siman," said Mr. Eckhart, "calling his attention to the fact that the distribution of literature among teachers in the schools is prohibited unless permission is granted by the board. The superintendent's office has sent instructions to principals, that the literature is not to be distributed unless a recommendation to that effect is passed by the board."

Epsteins Give $100,000 to U. of C. Medical School

Mr. and Mrs. Max Epstein of Chicago have contributed $100,000 to the medical school enterprise of the University of Chicago. This donation will be used to erect and equip a university dispensary.

Mrs. Epstein is now a student in the university. Mr. Epstein is the president of the General American Tank Car corporation.

This donation brings the total donations up to $5,100,000, leaving $200,000 yet to be collected.

ON AGAIN

Former Ald. Francis, With the Aid of Hypnotism, Again Mounts the Water Wagon—Doctors Watch Him Climb.

HYPNOTISM came into its own last night. It was introduced by Dr. Albert H. Burr into the sacred precincts of the Chicago Medical society. Collaborating with Dr. Burr was former Ald. Joseph H. Francis, who wrote "My Last Drink," and then fell off the wagon. But the author-alderman asserted last night, so help him hypnotism, that he will ride for the rest of his natural life.

The easiest chair in the hall was found and Mr. Francis dropped into it, with the physician hovering over him.

"Be as comfortable as you can," spoke the doctor softly. "Keep your mind from all unpleasant thoughts."

The ex-alderman closed his eyes.

Talking earnestly now, but still softly, Dr. Burr said to the man in the chair:

"You have come to the parting of the ways. You are going to break the shackles that bind you to the curse of habit. You will go out tomorrow, and it won't occur to you that you must have one. It is a curse, the degradation of the spirit, the demoralization of the home.

"From now on, you will live the life of the sober man. No longer will you feel the curse of the snake. From this day forth your lips will never touch another drop."

There was a moment's pause, then a snap of the fingers. The patient awoke, rubbed his eyes, and stood up.

Another blow had been struck at the liquor traffic. It was the hypnotic cure for the booze habit. The ex-alderman gave a testimonial, and the physicians, among them some of national reputation, cheered.

VON FRANTZIUS ESTATE REPORT SHOWS LAXITY

Books Not Posted and Items Ignored, Claim Co-Administrators.

A tentative statement of the affairs of Fritz von Frantzius, late head of Von Frantzius & Co., submitted to Probate Judge Henry Horner yesterday, show liabilities of approximately $14,900,000 and assets of $14,500,000. The expense item of publishing "The Book of Facts," written by the broker and running to 50,000 bound and 25,000 unbound volumes, was found by the accountants.

Books Unbalanced.

The audit was conducted by Co-Administrators Charles A. MacDonald and Attorney Gustave F. Fischer. It shows that the general ledger of the firm has not been balanced for several months, that security accounts have not been balanced in several years, and that there is no record of personal stock transactions available at the office of the firm.

New Action Opens.

While the audit of the estate was being conducted, proceedings were started in the Federal court seeking to ascertain the standing of the firm at the time of the death of Fritz von Frantzius.

Attorney Harry H. Barnum, associated with the accountants, said: "In computing the firm's liabilities there was entered all the firm owed the customers and traders on the stock they had placed with the firm for disposal or for securities. This is the reason the firm's business appears to be large."

Will Ask Dismissal.

Motion will be presented to Federal Judge Landis this morning by attorneys for Ben Marcuse, former business partner of Fritz Von Frantzius, asking for the dismissal of the bankruptcy petition. The motion was made before Judge Carpenter yesterday afternoon. The motion will be based on the grounds that the bankruptcy court has no jurisdiction. Should Judge Landis deny the motion that his court has not jurisdiction, books of the Von Frantzius firm will come before Referee Wean tomorrow.

U. S. Court Gives New Trial to Fire Extinguisher Man

Josiah T. Hair and Burchard R. Hair, who were convicted in the United States District court of using the mails to defraud, will get a new trial. The United States Circuit Court of Appeals yesterday reversed the lower court and remanded the case. The Hairs promoted a company for the sale of fire extinguishers.

Restaurant Closed as Subterfuge for Saloon

Mayor Thompson yesterday revoked the restaurant license of Charles Sallas, 1335 West Madison street, on the recommendation of Chief Schuettler. It was declared to be a subterfuge for sale of liquor.

STRAPHANGERS SHOULD WEIGH FRANCHISE PLEA

Student of Rapid Transit Shows Burden of Short Time Street Rights.

BY HENRY M. HYDE.

I have talked with practically all the recognized experts on the Chicago street car and rapid transit situation. Among them are former Gov E. F. Dunne, Walter Fisher, President Busby of the surface lines, Ald. Rodriguez, the Socialist councilman; Bion J. Arnold, chairman of the board of supervising engineers; and Ald. Capitain, chairman of the city council committee on local transportation.

I have asked each of them the following question:

"From the public standpoint, why is a street car franchise which expires in twenty years better than one which expires in fifty years, or one which runs indefinitely?"

Company at City's Mercy.

All the answers may be fairly boiled down as follows:

"At the termination of a twenty year franchise all the rights of the street car company in the public streets expire. It is, therefore, forced to come in and ask the city for a renewal of its rights. That puts the city in a better position to drive a hard bargain with the company. It may insist on a 3 cent fare, for instance, or any other concession which it can force the company to accept. The only alternative for the company is to take up its tracks, sell its rolling stock and retire from the transportation business with such loss or profit as it can find."

Theoretically, it should be added, that at the end of a twenty year franchise the city might order the company to remove its tracks and put the streets in the same condition in which it found them. The courts might—or might not—hold that such an order was illegal, because it would amount to the confiscation of property.

Transportation Necessity.

At any rate the only supposition on which such an order would be practically possible would be that motor vehicles or some other means of rapid transit had demonstrated that they were better than the street cars. Unless such a substitute were ready for operation, to stop the street cars for a week in a city like Chicago would result in chaos.

The advantage, therefore, of a twenty year franchise over a fifty year franchise, for example, is that by waiting less than half as long as in the latter case the city would have a chance to force the transit companies to accept better terms from the public standpoint. That is a real advantage, which should be given due consideration.

Some of the people interviewed used somewhat loose rhetoric about as follows: "If Chicago gives up the use of its streets for fifty years it will never get them back again." And "anyhow I shall never vote for a franchise longer than twenty years."

Many Sided Question.

Admitting the legitimate weight of the argument in favor of a twenty year franchise over one which does not expire for thirty years or any longer period there are certain facts which the straphanger will do well to consider.

Since 1907, when the present twenty year franchises were granted to the surface lines, about $90,000,000 in new capital has been invested in the property as shown by the reports of the board of supervising engineers. During the same period $20,000,000—more than 20 per cent of the total new investment—has been turned into the city treasury from the net profits of the company.

There remains ten years of the present franchise, which may be used as a fair example of what happens in the last ten years of any franchise which terminates at a fixed date.

The $90,000,000 invested in the property since 1907 are represented by bonds, all of which come due in 1927, when the franchise terminates. The company owes not only this amount, but some $60,000,000 additional, the assessed valuation of the company when the franchise was granted ten years ago.

Would Injure Credit.

Under its present franchise it has not been compelled—or, indeed, permitted—to set apart any sum annually to pay its debts, which all come due at the expiration of its franchise in 1927.

During the next ten years the company will need large additional sums of money with which to make extensions and to buy new rolling stock. It has no security to offer for the money it will need to borrow except its property and its hopes of getting an extention of its franchise in 1927. It will, therefore, find it increasingly difficult to borrow money.

The inevitable result will be that—lacking funds for improvement—the present plant of the street car company will grow less and less efficient. As a further result the present street car service—which is atrocious—will grow worse and worse.

And in 1927 the bonds of the company, which will by that time amount to between $100,000,000 and $150,000,000, will all come due.

If by getting an amendment to the state constitution the city gains the right to take over the property, it may then assume these bonds and proceed to operate the street car lines.

Two Issues Faced.

If, for any reason, the city fails to buy the roads, they will then have one of two things to do.

They may, at the demand of the bondholders, be thrown into the hands of a receiver.

Or—being granted a new franchise for twenty years—they may make arrangements to pay these bond issues by selling new bonds for the same or a larger amount.

IN A TANGLE

T. W. Cunningham, Whose Affairs Involve a $500,000 Suit, a $3,000,000 Estate, and Other Trouble.

T. W. Cunningham

Thomas W. Cunningham, former mayor and banker of Joplin, Mo., will undergo a test for his sanity in the Probate court there as a result of his marriage in Colorado recently to Miss Zoe Wilkins of Kansas City. Cunningham is 72 years old, while his bride is 25. She is at the Hotel Sherman, where they were on their honeymoon until Cunningham departed for Kansas City on Tuesday with E. C. Wilkins, his brother-in-law.

News of the marriage caused Mrs. Tabitha Taylor of Joplin, whose age is 71, to file suit for $500,000 on claims that she is the common law wife of Cunningham. A committee of citizens of Joplin interested themselves in the affair and Cunningham was arrested Tuesday night as he stepped from a train in Kansas City.

Mrs. Cunningham, when she learned of the aged man's arrest, charged that relatives were seeking to prevent her receiving any part of his $3,000,000 estate.

"I am not worrying over the matter," she declared.

Mrs. Taylor hurried to see Cunningham when he reached Joplin in custody of Sheriff Rogers. They rushed into each other's arms and began to cry. The aged banker said that he was married "a long time ago" to Miss Wilkins in a small Colorado town. Mrs. Cunningham prior to her marriage was an osteopath in Kansas City.

After his marriage the banker sold his interest in the Cunningham National bank at Joplin for $300,000. Friends asserted that a conspiracy to swindle him had been formed, and sent John Malang, one of their number, to Chicago to make an investigation.

Mrs. Cunningham declines to say whether she will contest the sanity proceedings against her husband. They include a move to have their marriage declared void.

BLAST INQUIRY IS OPENED BY TWO ALDERMEN

At Marcy center, within a block of the scene of the catastrophe, an aldermanic committee last night began its inquiry into the West Fourteenth street explosion that occurred last Friday morning. Four witnesses were heard. Mrs. Bessie Fledman, janitress of the building, told of two complaints made to the gas company, the most recent one about two weeks before the explosion. She said "four or five" employés of the gas company visited the building, but she understood the necessary repair work had not been completed. Samuel Friedman, 12 years old, told of watching repair men at work on the pipes in the basement of the building. Jacob Bernheim of Marcy center and Thomas W. Allinson of Henry Booth house told of seeing a flame in the street after the explosion resulting from a leaking pipe. Only two aldermen, Chairman Herman Miller and Hugh Norris, were present. Another meeting will be held Saturday night.

MAN IN THE CASE ACCUSES HUSBAND OF CONSPIRACY

Charges of conspiracy, fraud, and collusion were made before Judge Charles M. Thomson in the Circuit court yesterday against Frederick E. Bray, retired wine merchant, of 1452 East Sixty-sixth place, and his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Bray, by Robert C. Gehrke, a real estate dealer.

Mrs. Bray is the defendant in her husband's suit for divorce now pending before Judge Thomson. Gehrke is named as co-respondent in the suit and also is the defendant in Mr. Bray's suit against him for $25,000 for alienation of affections.

In the petition which the judge granted him leave to file Gehrke denies that he ever has been intimate with Mrs. Bray and asserts that he never gave the husband any cause for jealousy.

Auto Truck Fender Law Enforcement Postponed

The Motor Truck Owners' association announced last night that Chief of Police Schuettler has agreed to defer enforcement of the ordinance requiring fenders on auto trucks.

FLAT DWELLERS FACE NEW PERIL IN COAL FAMINE

Renting Agents Claim the Dealers Hold Up Fuel to Boost Prices.

Chicago has appealed to authorities of the city, state, and nation for coal with which to warm 1,500,000 tenants in 30,000 apartment houses who now face suffering unless relief is had within twenty-four hours.

The Chicago Renting Agents' association has requested immediate action by the interstate commerce commission in connection with the coal embargo.

The public utilities commission of the state will meet this morning in an effort to lift the embargo on hundreds of cars of coal held east of Portsmouth, O., on seven railroads.

Rental Agents Complain.

A complaint that coal is being held by dealers for higher prices has been made by the Rental Agents' association before United States District Attorney Charles F. Clyne. A conference will be held this afternoon with Mayor Thompson in attendance.

The complaint to the interstate commerce commission was telegraphed to George B. McGinty, secretary, and contained the significant words:

"Situation desperate. Must have relief within twenty-four hours."

Predicts Immense Damage.

"If there is no relief in that period of time," said Louis T. Orr of H. G. Howard & Co., realty dealers, and a member of the committee, "the apartment buildings of Chicago will be without heat. Another cold spell would mean frozen plumbing and enormous property damage. Sickness and suffering would follow."

The Chicago Renting Agents' association was formed recently with a definite primary purpose of organizing a machine to combat coal shortage and manipulation. Its membership comprises the following organizations: Chicago real estate board, Cook county real estate board, South Side Renting Agents' association, North Side Renting Agents' association, West Side Renting Agents' association, Edgewater Renting association, Rogers Park Renting association, Apartment Buildings association.

Small Supply on Hand.

Acting with Mr. Orr on the committee are C. R. Bixby and C. R. Gleason, who assert there is scarcely an apartment house in the city with more than a few hours' supply of coal on hand. Wagons, they say, go from building to building borrowing coal for others without fuel.

"If today were cold as Monday, all of our fires would be out," said the committeemen. "Providence stepped in and lowered the temperature when other agencies would give us no relief."

As a result of the public utilities commission meeting, in which former Gov. Dunne has agreed to participate, it is expected pressure will be brought to bear on the interstate commerce commission to remove the coal embargo east of Ohio points. Members of the committee assert there are hundreds of cars of coal on the Illinois Central, Lake Shore and Michigan Southern, Chicago and Eastern Illinois, Pennsylvania, Erie, Big Four, and Wabash tracks.

CANDY 'BRIBE' BY HOYNE CITED IN ERBSTEIN TRIAL

Bonbons—a beribboned carton of them, bound in coy heliotrope—burst saccharinely upon the Erbstein-O'Donnell trial for subornation of perjury yesterday and sent recreant blushes over the faces of such of the principals as have been accused of such mild divertisements as robbery, burglary, bribery, and perjury.

"We will show," said Assistant State's Attorney Frank Johnston Jr., who is appearing against Attorneys Erbstein and O'Donnell, "that Erbstein endeavored to have Mrs. Sarah Wexler go to Mr. Hoyne and repudiate her testimony; that he endeavored to have her carry away a box of candy which she was to say she got as a gift from Mr. Hoyne."

Schuettler Files Charges Against Luthardt, Healy

Chief Schuettler yesterday filed charges with the civil service commission against William Luthardt, secretary to former Chief Healey, and Capt. Stephen K. Healy, formerly in command at Stanton avenue. Both are under indictment, Healy on graft charges and Luthardt in the Sportsmen's club exposé. The charges are based on the indictments.

'MAMMY'S' TALE FAILS TO MOVE JUDGE BOWLES

Threatens Jail Unless Marjorie Is Found by Negress.

"Mammy" Jackson, the old colored woman, formerly foster mother of Marjorie Delbridge, the white child, who has mysteriously disappeared, took the witness stand in the Juvenile court yesterday and told a pathetic and seemingly candid story.

"I will not dismiss the charge of contempt against Mrs. Jackson and her attorneys, James Cotter and Chester De Armond," said Judge Bowles at the conclusion of the hearing. "Mrs. Jackson had better find Marjorie if she knows what is good for her. Otherwise somebody may go to jail."

Tells of Visit.

"I don't know where my baby is," the old colored woman testified. "I wisht I did. If I knowed I'd shore go to her, no matter whar she was.

"I went to see my lil' darlin' when the court took her away from me and give her to Mrs. Brock. I got to Mrs. Brock's house on Cornell avenue at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Brock opened the doah. I said, 'Whar's my baby?' She said she was eatin' supper. I waited and waited. Then Marjorie come in and come right up to her old mammy.

"We talked for a while and Marjorie and me went into the bathroom for five minutes. When we come out Marjorie put on her cloak because it was cold in the house. Then she went downstairs to the front door of the building with me.

"She said, 'Mammy, I've got to go to court tomorrow and I wisht you'd bring me my clothes and some money.' I said, 'I shore will, darlin'. Be a good girl, now.' That's the last I ever saw of the poor child."

Talked of Running Away.

"Did Marjorie ever say anything about running away?" Judge Bowles asked.

"Yes, suh, she did," replied "Mammy." "After she had run away from the Juvenile Protective home she come straight home and said to me: 'Mammy, no matter what they do to me, I'll run away and come back to my old mammy. I just had to come home. I said: 'They'll lock you up for this, chile,' and she said she didn't care what they did.

"I've had all the school children lookin' for her. I've done all I could to find her, but I can't. I've been waitin' and hopin' she'd come. I tell you what I think, judge. I think somebody is holdin' her against her will."

Here the old colored woman broke down and sobbed.

"Mammy" Jackson said when she left Mrs. Brock's she saw two automobiles standing a few doors away and two white women and a man waiting on the corner.

Assistant State's Attorney Robert E. Hogan laid stress on the fact that "Mammy" did not get home that night until 2 o'clock in the morning. "Mammy" explained by saying she dropped in at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Powell, to get her to write some letters for her.

Donald Olcese Insists on Running for Office

A number of citizens of Oak Park last night requested Donald Olcese, a garage man, to withdraw his candidacy for village trustee, it was reported. It was argued that Mr. Olcese's withdrawal would result in a saving to the community of $1,200, the cost of a primary election. Mr. Olcese declined to quit the race. He will oppose J. L. Fyffe at the April election.

EVEN AN OFFICE BOY DISCOVERS TEUTON LOYALTY

BY HERMAN MUGRAUER.

[Tribune Office Boy.]

The Gesangverein Almira, a German choral society, was holding its regular monthly meeting at 2459 Armitage avenue when I arrived last night. Deep chested, sonorous voices were singing the last stanza of "Way Down Upon the Suwanee River." There was no thought of war in their songs.

Finally the singing came to an end. A long table was brought in and men were seated on each side.

"Gentlemen, the meeting will come to order," said President Herman Loos. "There is a young man here from THE TRIBUNE. I am not certain just what his object in coming here tonight may be. Therefore we are ready to listen to what he has to say in explanation."

All eyes were turned toward me, who had come there not to talk but to listen. In a few words I told the assemblage that I wished to know what the German-Americans thought in regard to the existing relations between their former country and ours, and whether or not they would support the United States in case of war with the German nation.

The president rapped for order.

"My dear sir, and gentlemen, we did not come here for the purpose of discussing the war, nor for the purpose of discussing our country's foreign relations. However, we appreciate the kind intention of THE TRIBUNE in sending you here, and, since you are here, I am glad of the opportunity given us to express our thoughts.

"I speak for all in our society. Tell your editor this:

"We are first of all Americans.

"There is only one answer to your question. True, some of us are German born and all of us sympathize with the German people at war, but there can be no questioning of our loyalty to this country."

Every man present agreed with a shout of approval.

EDWARD SPENCER, LADY ELGIN HERO, DIES ON COAST

Edward W. Spencer, "the Hero of the Lady Elgin," is dead in Burbank, Cal., where he had resided for many years. He was 81 years old. The news received yesterday was the signal for an appropriate memorial in Northwestern university, where Spencer was a student when he became famous by swimming seventeen times to the wreck of the Lady Elgin and saving as many victims from among the 393 passengers. In all 279 lives were lost off Winnetka, Sept. 8, 1860. His heroism is told in a bronze tablet in the library of the university.

BOY KILLED IN GUN FIGHT WITH RAILWAY GUARD

Assistant State's Attorney Justin F. McCarthy was summoned to the Thirteenth street station last night to sift the truth from conflicting stories regarding the shooting of Milan Hurling, 18 years old, 1354 South Hoyne avenue.

The boy died in the county hospital after having been shot by Joseph E. Leming, 2208 West Harrison street, a watchman for the Chicago and Northwestern railroad.

MOTOR BUSSES ON SOUTH SIDE THIS SUMMER

Motor bus service on the south side boulevards this summer was practically assured yesterday when the south park board instructed its attorneys to collaborate with representatives of the Chicago Motor Bus company in making a few minor changes in the proposed contract, with the understanding that the contract will be adopted at the next meeting of the board.

The fare will be 10 cents.

CHICAGO BANK HEADS STUNG BY 'MR. HERRICK'

As the Ambassador's Nephew He Obtained Loans with Ease.

A warrant for the arrest of Robert William Gunther, alias Herbert Lackley, alias H. L. Herrick, was taken out yesterday by the Corn Exchange National bank. It is expected that similar action will be taken by nearly every large bank in the loop.

Gunther, according to the Pinkerton National Detective agency, has obtained nearly $1,000 from Chicago bankers by representing himself as a nephew of Myron Herrick, United States ambassador to France. Pinkerton records show he was arrested in New York last year after swindling sixty New York banks.

He obtained $50 from the Corn Exchange by stating he had recently arrived in the city with his wife, who was ill. He requested a temporary loan of $50 until a check from his brother, "P. G. Herrick of 2118 Stone street, Denver, Colo.," should arrive. He gave his address as 19 Main street, Joliet, Ill.

Raymond Hathaway, a teller, formerly lived in Joliet, and did not remember any such street. Investigation proved his suspicions true.

"Gunther would never have any dealings with any one but the president or vice president of the bank," said a Pinkerton official. "He would casually remark that his uncle, Myron Herrick, cabled him a few days ago inquiring for his health. If the bank official seemed interested he would ask for a loan. If the ambassador's name did not produce the desired effect Gunther would go. He never asked for more than $200.

"He covered Chicago systematically. Last Friday and Saturday he 'made' La Salle street, starting from the board of trade. Monday he took Monroe street."

GIRL'S 'DARLING DAVID,' BROKER, SUED BY WIFE

Every day was Thanksgiving day for Gladys. So she spent her time at Ward-Belmont, an exclusive boarding school at Nashville, writing her "bachelor boy" how happy she was. And the "bachelor" replied.

But the unsophisticated little school girl made a mistake. Her "Darling David" was a married man. So when David O'Connor, a member of the board of trade from the firm of Logan & Bryan, was not looking his wife found the letter in his pocket along with a copy of the answer.

Yesterday Mrs. Ethel Rose O'Connor, through her attorney, Robert P. Burkhalter of Burkhalter, Grossberg & Newfield, filed a bill for separate maintenance. She stated that they were married in 1912 and parted last September.

"Gladys'" letter to "Darling David" in part follows:

"You have not heard from me for such a long time that I am afraid you have forgotten there is a girl in Tenessee who loves you with a love so deep that it is out of the reach of words.

"Every day is Thanksgiving for me, dear. You know that I am grateful for the love which you have given me."

The reply contains this sentence:

"It is certainly cheerful for a contemplative bachelor. I am one at this age to know that the girl I really love has a thought for me."

Collector's Follow-Up Pulls $ 5,253.40 Check

In response to a letter urging payment of assessments in the Twelfth street widening project, City Collector Charles J. Forsberg yesterday received a letter from the Illinois Central Railroad company inclosing a check for $25,253.40, that company's assessment.

'TIS ART—AH!

Forty-seven Women Watch, Palpitant, as M. Joller Makes His Fowls Delectable, Immortal.

Perfect Anglais, alas, he cannot spik, but to cook—ah!

Far from the madding war bulletins, away from the throbs of trade, M'sieu J. Joller, director of eats at the Union League club, spent yesterday afternoon at the School of Domestic Art in the Tower building.

There M. Joller delivered an address.

"What I am about to do is to cooking as the Sistine Madonna is to art," said M. Joller, and he proceeded forthwith to cut from the chickens their limbs. There were four of 'em—count 'em—four. They were placed on a plate and passed about.

Never were such chicken limbs! They were resplendent, majestic. They were prolific in palatable promise. The students prepared. The members being returned to the table, M. Joller turned his attention to the interior finish.

A bit of an exotic egg. A saline dash and a little peppah! A trifle of (deleted) and a touch of (deleted). A hint of thyme, a suggestion of onion, an inuendo of buttah!

"And we finish, mesdames, with some rare, veree good sherry wine," said M. Joller.

Then he slit the chicken limbs and removed the bones. Into the apertures he put the stuffing. Forty-seven bosoms rose and fell as M. Joller opened the door of the oven and placed the pan within. The suspense was terrible.

The students battled with hysteria for twenty minutes. M. Joller himself was white faced, but composed. From within could be heard a glorified sizzling. The door was opened.

"Mesdames, La Rangulllette!" said M. Joller.

CHICAGO BOYS GO TO FRONT TO HELP WOUNDED

Enlisted as ambulance drivers, seventeen Chicago young men left early this morning for New York, where they will sail on the French liner Espagne for France on Saturday. The young men are:

Paden, Buchanan, Mich.; F. K. Johnston, 5533 Woodlawn avenue; Scott Russell, 1914 Washingto nboulevard; E. T. Gurney, 289 Central avenue, Highland Park; W. L. Boyer, 4720 Sheridan road; John G. Coulter, 5646 Dorchester street; W. Jamieson, Greenwood inn, Evanston; Robert C. Fraser, 5555 Woodlawn avenue; G. R. Foley, 1436 Astor street; Hugh Elliott, Greenwood inn, Evanston; Horace F. Dupee, 110 Richard street, Joliet; John B. Moore, 2434 Archer street; A. F. Millet, 738 Lincoln parkway.

PAWN BROKERS HELD ON "GOLD COAST" CLEW

Assistant State's Attorney Ernest Buehler late last night questioned Herman Cohn, owner of the Empire Loan company at 649 North Clark street, who had been brought to the state's attorney's offices in the Criminal Court building a short time before by a detective The pawnbroker was questioned about a diamond and pearl pendant and a pearl ring taken by Adam Prochowski from the home of George M. Reynolds Cohn was one of the sponsors of Annie Sharpley of Melrose Park chicken farm fame.

Cohn denied receiving any Reynolds loot.

WAR PERIL BRINGS U. S. MEDIATOR TO AVERT RAIL TIEUP

Managers of Roads and Switchmen to Confer Today.

Military necessity sent Judge W. F. Chambers of the federal board of arbitration and conciliation to Chicago. He arrived last night. Today he will attempt to bring about a settlement of the threatened strike of switchmen and yardmen in Chicago.

Federal officials have awakened to the fact that a tieup of railroad traffic in the city would be a national calamity at any time, but sepecially with the German situation in the balance. A strike the railroad managers confess would result in an almost complete tieup of the vast traffic to and through Chicago.

CRITICAL SITUATION.

Not only would Chicago be without fresh food and coal within a few days but the vastly greater transcontinental traffic east and west and north and south would be blocked. Rapid movement of troops and war supplies would be made impossible.

Despite the importance of his mission, Judge Chambers under the law creating the arbitration board can apply only moral pressure to bring about a settlement, though it is considered not unlikely that he may have some special word from the administration on the alternative of military control of the railroad yards while war threatens.

A conference is to be held this morning between the switchmen and the representatives of the eighteen affected railroads.

EIGHT HOUR DAY?

Railroad managers in Chicago assert that the grievances cited by the men are only pretexts for obtaining an eight hour day. W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, took a not dissimilar view in a statement made in Cleveland at night. He said:

"If the switchmen of Chicago go on strike to enforce their demands that the present rules be lived up to by the railroads they will remain on strike not only until their present demands are granted but until the eight hour day is given them."

In Mr. Lee's statement was seen a veiled threat of a general strike such as was averted by the passage of the Adamson law in the fall.

LOCAL COMPLICATIONS.

Among the purely local results of a strike in the railroad yards would be:

Milk and other foodstuffs would be prevented from reaching the city.

An immediate coal shortage.

The destruction of thousands of dollars' worth of perishable freight.

An increase in the cost of all commodities.

Tieup of suburban service.

"If this strike is called," said a railroad man, "it will be much more serious and far reaching than was the big railroad strike planned in September. Then the railroads were prepared and trains would have been operating within twenty-four hours after the strike was declared. But if a strike is called now there will be a complete tieup."

NOT IN A. F. OF L.

The American Federation of Labor will not support the strike, it was learned authoritatively yesterday. The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, the only labor organization affected, is not affiliated with the federation, and the Switchmen's union, which has such an affiliation, has been at swords' points with the brotherhood for years. Members of the Switchmen's union, about one-third of the switchmen employed in Chicago, will remain at work, it was declared.

COURT PUZZLED BY 20TH DELAY IN VICE CASE

The case of Libby Martin, who is alleged to have kept a disorderly house at 2703 Wabash avenue, has developed a conundrum. When neither she nor her attorney appeared before Judge Wells yesterday her case was postponed for the twentieth time, to Thursday. Libby's name cropped out in the testimony of Samuel P. Thrasher in the hearing before Judge Olson on the state's attorney's application for warrants for Former Chief Healey's arrest. Her arrest resulted.

TEN CENT MILK COMING APRIL 1, DEALERS ADMIT

Milk producers will win their demand for a higher scale of prices from Chicago distributors without a contest, was the prediction made yesterday by M. J. Metzger, general manager of the Bowman Dairy company.

And, what's more, according to Mr. Metzger, the public must pay, as was the case last fall. Mr. Metzger thinks milk is going to 10 cents a quart, retail, to stay.

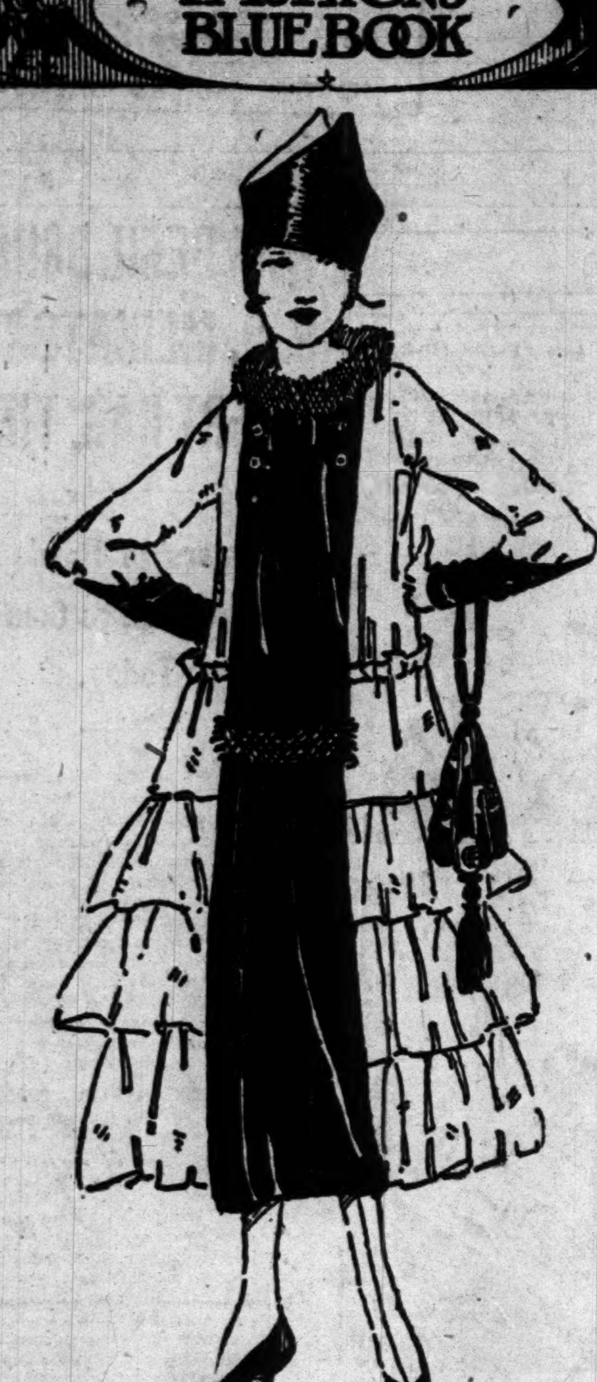
FASHION'S BLUE BOOK



BY CORINNE LOWE.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—"Come out of the kitchen" is a command which doesn't have the slightest effect, apparently, on our apparel. For when we do come out we are apt to wear, one chance out of five, nothing more festive than an apron.

In quite a few of the new models we find them—these glorified aprons of silk and velvet—and what an admirable method they do provide for the most of us limited folk who have to make over our old clothes! Just button one of these slips around our neck, let it fall over the skirt of last year's frock, and, presto! Here we are in the calcium spotlight of fashion.

The model shown is one where this apron effect of black satin falls over a ruffled skirt of black net. A band of skunk edges the collar and another placed well down on the panel, shows you that, even if the frock can do nothing better than have a normal waist line, this apron itself lays claim to the long moyenage.

Natural brown rice, 10 cents a package. Twenty pound sack of extra fancy rice advertised at $1.38; 10 pounds, 75 cents; 5 pounds, 38 cents; 1 pound, 8 cents.

Cooking Natural Brown Rice.

WINTER time is the best time to eat brown rice, because fruit and vegetables, our chief mineral bearing foods, are scarcer and higher in price. As a breakfast food brown rice is an agreeable alternate of oatmeal, etc.

All war times are rice times, as we may learn from war correspondents. This is because rice is so portable, not perishable, easy to cook, and a substitute for bread.

To make a fuss about eating brown rice, and at the same time to drown vegetables in cooking them, and then to throw this cooking water away is the height of nonsense. But when cabbage costs 10 cents a pound, it is a good thing to eat brown rice, although the mineral matter stored in the brown part is less than that in most green vegetables.

Rice of any sort can never give the desirable digestive or laxative bulk that the vegetables give, plus their invaluable mineral matter. This mineral matter perhaps has greater activating power in helping the various glands of our body to function than that of any cereal.

In my experience brown rice is much dirtier and more broken than unpolished white rice.

Although the brown rice put up in packages is sterilized, because it "contains so much oil that it will not keep well without," yet when it is kept some time in a warm kitchen it will have a rancid smell. It is not necessary to throw it away at this season, but in the summer it becomes weevil infested in a short time. Pick over, wash in many waters, put on stove in several times its measure of cold water, bring to boil, and let boil a minute, drain off water and pour cold water over it. It will be sweet with this treatment. Add to it twice its measure of cold water, cook in covered kettle with fire so low that no water boils out. For a vegetable add a carrot and onion sliced. Butter well before serving.

Helen got into the bad habit of running away to some of her playmates' homes, and her mamma finally put a stop to it by tying her up a few times as a punishment. The other day she wanted a new rope to replace a broken and worn out one on her sled, but her father wasn't able to locate one around the house. Then Helen said: "I know where thay's a piece of rope, but that's the one mamma ties me up with when I run away." F. J. B.

Little Fanny's usual daily "touch" was a nickel, but one morning she said: "Papa, please give me a quarter."

"Why in the world do you want so much?" her father asked.

"O, on account of the war." J. McD.

My dad was carving the turkey and asked me what I would like. I told him a leg. He then asked my sister what she would wish and she said the breast, and so on around the table. My little sister, aged 3, sat in her high chair watching him. When it came her turn she said "give me an arm." H. J. S.

BY MAE TINEE.

A TYPICAL Hart melodrama is "The Gun Fighter." Admirers of this bold, bad boy among screen artists will have never liked him better than as the desperate leader of a gang of outlaws known as "The Killer" and counting his "kills" by the score. Sinister of eye and mien, quick on the draw and never known to miss a shot, his hand is yet only turned against those without the pale of the law.

The voice of a woman calling him "murderer" and "coward" turns him finally from his reckless ways and, wearing the star of an officer of the law, he finally dies splendidly for the cause she has thought right, thereby furnishing us with an artistic but not a happy ending.

Mr. Hart is undoubtedly picturesque. Always the villain with the heart of gold and the sentimental chord responsive to the touch of a good woman, he is—in easy vernacular—a likable cuss.

This time he was supported by a good cast. Some of the scenic effects were magnificent, and if it's action you want, "The Gun Fighter" is the picture where you get it.

Regarding "Kick In."

The censors are busily operating on "Kick In." Here, so far, are the "cuts" they have ordered:

REEL ONE—

Vulgar dancing in saloon. Entire scene of crooks teaching child to open safe. Subtitle: "Make good, you brat, or I'll brain you." Crooks lying in wait for sailor and man falling and woman leaning over him. Suggesting waylaying and robbing him. Boys attacking coachman. Boys throwing stones at officer. Subtitle: "We ain't afraid of bulls. We're a tough gang." Four scenes of crooks working at safe. Robbing safe, subtitle: "Jeff, the lookout."

REEL TWO—

Newspaper item about robbery. Fight between gangsters and police. All interior scenes. Scene where crooks remove coat, revealing stolen articles.

REEL THREE—

Subtitle: "Look out for yellow machine." Hold up auto, three scenes.

REEL FIVE—

Boy stealing necklace. Woman giving injection to officer.

And Maj. Funkhouser intimates there are more to come.

We should say it's a case of "kick out."

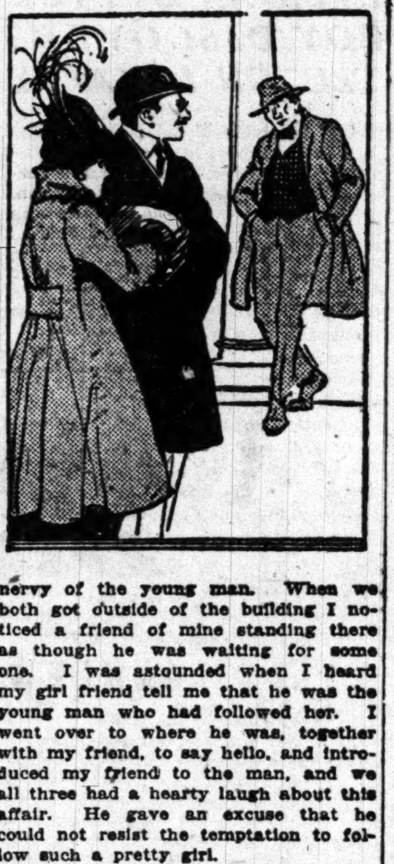
Flirting Didn't Win Her.

ABOUT four years ago a friend of mine, a young lady of 22, was walking to the office where I am employed, as we both had a luncheon engagement.

While on her way over to the office a certain young man who she noticed was standing on one of the street corners began to follow her, and after he had walked about a block right behind her she became disgusted and turned around and said, "Young man, if you think there is any use flirting you are mistaken, so run along." Nevertheless he was still determined to follow her.

On reaching my office she told me of her experience, which I thought was nervy of the young man. When we both got outside of the building I noticed a friend of mine standing there as though he was waiting for some one. I was astounded when I heard my girl friend tell me that he was the young man who had followed her. I went over to where he was, together with my friend, to say hello, and introduced my friend to the man, and we all three had a hearty laugh about this affair. He gave an excuse that he could not resist the temptation to follow such a pretty girl.



He saw her quite a bit after this introduction and within three months they were married. He said that any girl who was so well able to defend herself would sure make a brave wife, and that is what prompted him to propose. S. B.

Not Friendless Any More.

"I AM the English girl who wrote to you a few weeks ago of my great longing to meet or to hear from some of my own country-people. Really, I hardly know how to thank that dear Corner for the kind interest it has shown in me. I received the big budget of letters answering my appeal which you were good enough to send me, and it arrived on Christmas morning. Think of it! I cannot tell you how much it did to cheer and make my Christmas a happy one and one long to be remembered. A nice Englishwoman came to see me and spent the evening a little over a week ago. Then all those nice letters kept coming! I shall certainly not feel 'alone and friendless' any more, with the doors of so many homes open to me. I thank the Corner much for all its kindness and only wish I could in some small measure repay it. I have written to every correspondent and telephoned to those who have telephoned to me. I accepted an invitation to one of the homes for New Year's. The woman, fortunately, lives near me. Your Corner is rightly named 'Helping Hand.'
"BEATRICE M."

Hints for the Housewife.

"In a late issue of the Corner E. R. asked how to get rid of roaches, and you suggest borax. I think I could tell her of a better way if she would write to me. I consider getting rid of the pests a most important thing for the home and should be happy to lend a hand to sister housewives. Have any of the Cornerites salted their gas mantles when they were black and did not give a good light? Be careful to turn the light a little low and shake the salt on from the top and dash a little with a gentle hand on the sides. It will burn up quickly and the mantle will once again give a good light. Mrs. B. F. J. tells of packing eggs in salt. Let me say that my mother did that for years and years, and it is a good way. She used coarse salt, the kind one feeds to horses. Have you ever printed this? Before boiling candy grease the top of the pan with butter about half an inch down and the candy (or milk) will not boil above that point. J. W. C."

Baked Dishes Retain Moisture.

"I wonder if the following will be of any service? Any dish to be baked, such as custard, scalloped dishes, and puddings, will retain moisture and lose scarcely any in bulk if set in a pan containing water, either hot or cold. These dishes, except custards, may be covered until steamed through. Then lift the cover for browning. R. B. C."

Another Friend for Beatrice M.

"Please send me the address of Beatrice M. We are English and wish to write to her. I sent packages to Mrs. G. and Mrs. S. J. MRS. R. W."

The desired address went to you by mail. Your report is good, and we estimate rightly your value to us. I note that English girls waste no words in recounting their deeds of mercy. I am glad Beatrice M. is to know another congenial country woman. Both of you are to be congratulated.

MUSIC

Last Save One of the Sunday Dime Concerts to Be in Harrison Technical High.

THE ninth of the concerts in the public schools by the American Symphony orchestra will be on Sunday at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the Harrison Technical high school at Marshall boulevard and Twenty-fourth street. The series, which is under the auspices of THE TRIBUNE and the Civic Music association with the board of education, will end on Sunday, Feb. 18. Next Sunday's will be a return-visit to the Harrison school; and the program will be different in all respects, save one, from that offered when the orchestra was there some weeks ago: the exception is that "The Star-Spangled Banner" will be played and sung, as in all the concerts. Glenn Dillard Gunn, director of the American Symphony, lists two soloists for next Sunday—Della Thal, pianist, and Guy H. Woodard, one of the best-known of Chicago's violinists. Mr. Woodard was concert-master of the National Symphony orchestra for two seasons under Max Bendix.

Pupils to Give Du Maurier Comedy.

One hundred pupils of Medill High school tomorrow evening will produce the DuMaurier comedy, "A Doctor in Spite of Himself," followed by a combined minstrel and vaudeville second part.

$2* Invested in Vogue
Will Save You $200

The gown you buy and never wear is the really expensive gown. Gloves, boots and hats that just miss being what you hoped for are the ones that cost more than you can afford.

Why take chances this year when, by spending $2 for 12 issues of Vogue, you can insure the correctness of your wardrobe for the entire Spring and Summer—and save yourself from costly gowning errors—errors that may mean $200, $300 or even $400 a year.

The Numbers of Vogue That Unfold the New Spring Mode

Vogue suggests that before spending a single penny on your new clothes, before you even plan your Spring wardrobe, you consult these six issues of Vogue—the first six numbers you will receive on Vogue's special offer of 12 issues for $2

Forecast of Spring Fashions — February 1st
The earliest and most trustworthy forecast of the Spring mode. Authentic information on the correct fashions for the coming season. An insurance against the most costly of all wardrobe errors—a wrong start.

Spring Millinery — February 15th
Smart hats, bonnets, veils, coiffures fresh from Paris. Everything pertaining to the smart accessories of the new Spring mode. The best 100 model hats that Paris has produced for the season of 1917.

Spring Patterns and Materials — March 1st
Practical advice on how to plan and build your Spring wardrobe. Over 250 pattern designs at once modish, simple to make and sure to hold their style. An interesting number to the devotee of fashions: an indispensable number to the woman who makes or plans her own gowns.

Spring Fashions — March 15th
The last word on Spring models including many that hark forward to the styles of Summer. Gowns, tailleurs, blouses, hats, wraps and all the necessary accessories will be pictured and described so that at one glance you can tell what all the dressmakers and shops are showing.

Paris Openings Number — April 1st
This is the "All Paris" Number devoted to the newest French creations. Every noteworthy gown, hat, wrap, cloak or suit produced in Paris this Spring will be faithfully reproduced. The best creations of the smart couturiers showing the accepted sleeve, skirt and collar lines.

Smart Fashions for Limited Incomes — April 15th
To dress well one must have either taste and time or taste and money. Time to plan things economically or money to buy them extravagantly. This number shows how you can curtail your dress allowance and still be in the height of taste and fashion. A help to the woman with an inflexible allowance.

PRICE CHANGES ON FEB. 15th

Owing to the higher cost of labor and materials, the price of Vogue, after February 15th, is $5 a year. So this is your last chance to get Vogue at the rate of $4 a year (24 numbers) or in this offer $2 for 12 issues. By using the coupon below you will, with one stroke of the pen, solve your entire clothes problem.

Remember that this coupon should be received by Vogue on or before February 15th.

12 issues of Vogue for $2

These six issues and the six that follow for two dollars if your order is received before February 15th

In the next few months, during the very period in which these issues appear, you will be selecting your entire wardrobe for the coming Spring and Summer and spending hundreds of dollars for the suits, hats, gowns, and accessories which you will select.

Consider then, that for $2, a tiny fraction of your loss on one ill-chosen hat or gown, you may secure Vogue for six months—an assurance of new and valuable ideas and an insurance against costly gowning failures.

Henry Field Weds Nancy Perkins in New York City.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—[Special.]—Miss Nancy Kean Perkins, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Moncure Perkins, was married to Henry Field, son of the late Marshall Field Jr. of Chicago, this afternoon at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, 127 East Seventy-third street.

Owing to the death of the bride's uncle, E. Kean Langhorne, the wedding was very quiet, with only relatives and a few intimate friends present. The ceremony was performed by Auxiliary Bishop Hayes, and a small reception followed.

The bride wore a costume of pearl embroidered white chiffon made on simple lines, and there was a long train of the same material. Her veil of tulle, which completely enveloped the gown, was held in place by a bandeau of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white lilies.

The bridal attendants, Mrs. George B. Post Jr., cousin of the bride, and Miss Flora Payne Whitney, wore costumes of cream colored chiffon finished with girdles of pale blue satin. They wore also short veils of pale blue tulle held by chaplets of green leaves, carrying nosegays of pansies. The bride's little sister, Alice Perkins, wore a frock of chiffon, the same color as that of the bridesmaids, and she also carried a pansy nosegay.

Some of those who witnessed the marriage ceremony were Mrs. Marshall Field, grandmother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Charles H. Marshall, Mrs. Marshall Field III., Mr. and Mrs. George B. Post, Miss Harriette Post, George B. Post Jr., Miss Belle Perkins, aunt of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Field and Mrs. Henry Dibblee of Chicago, Charles H. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Winthrop, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick O. Beach, Mr. and Mrs. James Brown Potter, Mr. and Mrs. George Gordon Battle, Mrs. Albert Keep, Mrs. John C. King, Mr. and Mrs. George Brewster, and Mrs. Harold Flood.

After a brief reception for those who had attended the marriage ceremony, the couple started on a southern trip. They will divide their time between Chicago, where they have taken an apartment at 942 Lake Shore drive, and Virginia.

Mrs. Field is a niece of Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Waldorf Astor, Mrs. Phyllis L. Brooks, and Mrs. Paul Phipps. She made her début two years ago with her cousin, Mrs. Post.

Mr. Field's mother, several years after the death of Mr. Field, married Capt. Maldwin Drummond of the British army. She lives in England.

Amy Lowell's on Her Way to Pay Us Another Visit!

BY CINDERELLA.

AMY LOWELL'S on her way again, so Chicago's poetic muse is throwing up its hat. Amy's due to make a speech here on Washington's birthday, and it'll be a good speech, for the sister of Abbott Lawrence Lowell, Harvard's president, is as clever and witty as she is fat.

To my mind, it's really refreshing and uplifting to meet a fat person nowadays, especially when their brains aren't fat, for they don't talk about "Eat and Grow Thin" all the time, and one does weary of that subject occasionally.

◆

There's just been a foregathering of poets in New York—a sort of congress in honor of the arrival of Wilfred Wilson Gibson from England. A banquet was given at the National Arts club in his honor, where the name of Edgar Lee Masters of Chicago was more often in the speeches of the speakers, however, than that of the British Gibson.

Lee Masters had a great ovation, and his speech was most amusing, beginning with the hope that his friendship for Amy Lowell would keep him on good terms with heaven; there being a poem to the effect that in "Boston, land of the bean and cod, a Cabot only speaks to a Lowell and a Lowell only speaks to God."

Amy Lowell herself, springing about lightly on her feet, made the wittiest speech of all, saying an announcement that she "was supposed to be exclusive," but was not. In the intervals of vast laughter she airily tossed a small case into the air, deftly catching it—it was supposed to be a card case, but was undoubtedly Amy's famous "after dinner cigars."

◆

A leading critic says of her last book, "Men, Women, and Ghosts": "No living writer can fit the word to the image more closely than Miss Lowell. Color, sound, outline, the dim atavisms of childhood, all can be upbuilded, if only the one perfect phrase lurking in the dark abysm of the language can be called forth."

◆

The foremost American, Col. Roosevelt, had a tete-a-tete breakfast for Lee Masters, no other date being available, and Mrs. Douglas Robinson, his sister—well known here—had a luncheon for Mr. Masters and his sister, Mrs. Grön. Mrs. Robinson herself poetizes as Edith Roosevelt.

One of the most interesting parties for the visiting poets was at the old Robert Ingersoll house in Gramercy park. Here, at an evening reception, Lee Masters was asked by the Ingersoll family to read his ode to Ingersoll.

Julia Marlowe and Sothern were of the gathering, and the former was induced to read "Grey's Elegy" to the assembled writers of verse, free and otherwise.

WEDDINGS

A QUIET wedding of yesterday afternoon was that of Mrs. Peabody of 5052 Drexel boulevard, widow of the late Hiram B. Peabody, and the Rev. F. E. J. Lloyd, who were married at the home of the bride, Archbishop Vilatte officiating. The couple will go to the West Indies to remain until the middle of next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Matheson of 4534 Woodlawn avenue announce the marriage of their daughter, Adelaide Mayo, to Edward G. Woods, which took place yesterday before a few friends and relatives.

Miss Helvetia Orr, daughter of Mrs. Arthur Orr of 66 Cedar street, has changed the plans for her wedding, and instead of being married in Chicago she will go to New York to be married at the home of her sister, Mrs. Marion Sims Wyeth. Miss Orr will be married to Frank B. Perkins, son of Robert Forbes Perkins of Boston, on Feb. 24.

Announcement was yesterday made by Mrs. Samuel E. Barrett of 1412 Lake Shore drive of the marriage on Saturday of her daughter, Winifred, to Leonard Carpenter of Bedford, Ore. The bride has lived for the last two years in Bedford, and the couple expect to live there.

ENGAGEMENTS

MRS. FREDERICK W. CLARK announces the engagement of her daughter, Kathryn Dyer, to Roswell Livingston Blodgett, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Blodgett of New York. Miss Clark is a graduate of Vassar and Mr. Blodgett of Princeton. The wedding will probably take place early in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lepic of 3019 West Twentieth street announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to Walter J. Banas.

* *

Women to Visit Art Institute.

The Woman's club of the Allied Drug Trade will have their annual view day today at the Art institute. The day is in charge of Mrs. William Gallagher. Mrs. Hall will lecture on "Old Masters." Luncheon will be served at 12:30.

VANITY FAIR

Don't be a Social Gloom. Don't be an intellectual Wet Blanket. Don't kill the dinner stone dead along about the chicken okra or the baked sea bass. Enjoy it all the way from the cocktails and caviar clear through to the coffee and Coronas. Make others enjoy it.

Six Months of Vanity Fair will Enable you to Ignite a Dinner Party at Fifty Yards

Vanity Fair will act as your passport to popularity. It will teach you how to write vers-libre on your shirt-bosom; how to wear a tiara without hatpins; and how to tell a Newport dowager from a sea-lion. In short, it will keep you in touch with everything stimulating, novel and amusing in the brilliant kaleidoscope of American life.

Vanity Fair costs 25 cents a copy—$3 a year. There is more innocent fun and mental stimulation in one single copy than in fourteen yards of Bergson or Ralph Waldo Emerson. Yet, if you do not know Vanity Fair, or would like to know it better, you may have six whole copies for an insignificant dollar bill.

NEWS OF THE THEATER

THE discomforts of Lord Dunsany's bivouac "somewhere in France" will be lessened, no doubt, by the cheering news that his plays are popular in Chicago. Two more of them have been presented in the Playhouse-Portmanteau—"The Golden Doom" and "The Gods of the Mountain"—and they have given genuine enjoyment to profitable audiences. As the time is not propitious for long newspaper articles about the Drama, consideration of these entertainments must be deferred. There is barely space today for a record of what is happening

At the Majestic:

Clara Howard—A nice girl, apparently, singing a coarse song.

Dainty Marie—Marie is as dainty as a Percheron, though nimbler. She performs with intrepidity upon the flying rings, cracking jokes as she does so, and she wears less clothing than any other lady on the stage.

Edwin George—One of those "nut" jugglers with an accompaniment of brisk nonsense. The star indicates that he is my favorite on the bill.

Lew Brice and Helene Coyne—Proud dancers, aided by pretentious scenery and costumes.

Brooks and Bowen—Negroes who entertain mildly and modestly with song and jest. Mr. Brooks is identified as the author and composer of an anthem called, "If I Were a Bee and You Were a Red, Red Rose."

Digby Bell—Acting in an onerous sketch called "Mind Your Own Business," by Winchell Smith, author of "Turn to the Right" and "The Boomerang." In it a sentimental and loving old couple assault and batter each other as a horrible example to their daughter, who is having trouble with her new husband. Mr. Bell plays vigorously and agreeably and he is helped by Miss Helen Blair, who is pretty and unaffected.

Mme. Jeanne Jomelli—An imposing warbler with an operatic past, singing the serenades of Mr. Hallett Gilberte, who abets her with a piano.

Movies—Showing Mrs. Vernon Castle, and Our Feathered Friends at Dinner.

◆

Vaudeville has been abandoned by Miss Olive Wyndham after brief adventures in "The Sweetmeat Game," and her place in that drama has been taken by Miss Margaret Greene.

◆

No performances of "Arms and the Girl" will be given anywhere after next Saturday night.

◆

Mr. Fields in "Bosom Friends" portrays a middle aged German clergyman, lovable but truculent, who quarrels with his lifelong crony about their respective children. After "Katinka" goes upon its way next Sunday "Bosom Friends" will come to the Chicago with Mathilde Cottrelly, Helen Reimer, and others to help Mr. Fields to play it.

CY WILLIAMS WILL NOT BACK PLAYERS' FRAT

Hasn't Signed Yet, but Balks on Making Cubs 'Goat' in Uprising.

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

Baseball fans who follow the Cubs do not need to work longer about the position of center field being well filled next season, because Cy Williams, the great outfielder and hard hitter, expressed himself last night in a few words which indicate he has no intention of going on a strike, but that he has a great desire to continue chasing long fly balls and driving still longer ones over the right wall next summer on the north side.

Cy has not yet signed his contract for next year, but he was interviewed by telephone at his home in Park Ridge last night, and judging from his talk he will sign a contract in plenty of time to board the Cub special for California a week from next Tuesday night.

Objects to Being a "Goat."

"I haven't signed yet," admitted Cy, "but it is not because of the fraternity. Yes, I'm one of the fellows who signed the pledge sent out by Dave Fultz, but I object to being made a goat. I don't think the fraternity has acted fairly to its members who belong to the Cubs in naming Feb. 20 as the date for the strike. Other players who do not start on a training trip for a week or two after that can sit back and wait to see how we come out with the affair. I suppose if we failed and got kicked out of baseball, then they would have time to save themselves and sign their contracts.

"If a strike is to be called it should have been set for opening day or for any date after the season opened, when all of us would be in the same boat. While I am in favor of a baseball fraternity, I am against the methods used in this case and of course can drop out of the fraternity and sign my contract when I decide that is the thing to do.

No Trouble with Weeghman.

"I didn't sign the contract sent to me by President Weeghman, but I have had no trouble whatever with him, and expect none. I intend to go into Chicago and see him, but haven't had an opportunity, and I don't want to sign until I have a talk with him. Possibly the contract offered me is all right, but I had expected a raise in salary. The contract calls for the same amount I got last year.

"I never was one of those fortunate fellows who possessed what they call a war time contract. My last contract was made before the Federal league could have any influence with it, and called for $4,000. I never once considered the Federal league, but always was loyal to the Cubs, and I thought after my work of last year I was entitled to a raise. Since receiving the contract I have been away from home and busy on other matters, and haven't had a chance yet to call upon Mr. Weeghman for a talk, but I think we can fix matters up in a short time. I do not intend to let the fraternity get me into any baseball trouble. My intentions are to play with the Cubs next summer."

Four Young Cubs Sign.

President Weeghman, who recently said he had twenty-seven of his players under contract, admitted he was worried a bit about Cy Williams, as the latter is one of the stars of the team and a great favorite. Weeghman announced yesterday the names of four youngsters who have signed for the coming season, the four being Outfielder Earl Smith and Pitchers Vic Aldridge, Jack McTigue, and Welton Ehrhardt.

MURNANE DROPS DEAD IN THEATER

Boston, Mass., Feb. 7.—Timothy H. Murnane, former president of the New England and the Eastern Baseball leagues, vice president of the national board of professional baseball clubs, and baseball editor of the Boston Globe for thirty years, dropped dead in a theater tonight. He was 65 years of age. Murnane was a professional player for fifteen years before he began writing on the game. He was one of the most widely known baseball reporters in the country.

Death came half an hour after he had written his daily article.

During his career on the diamond Murnane played first base and in the outfield with some of the stars of the formative period of the game. He was with "Jim" O'Rourke and with "Pop" Anson on the Philadelphia Athletics of the '70s and in 1874 was a member of the combined Boston-Athletics combination which toured England. Later he joined the Boston team of the old National association, and in 1884 was manager of the local team of the outlaw Union association.

Last fall, as vice president of the National association, he presided over the annual convention of that body at New Orleans.

Boston Braves Secure Options on 'Strikebreakers'

Boston, Mass., Feb. 7.—[Special.]—The Braves are prepared and equipped to break the back of the threatened baseball strike. President Haughton, acting with Manager George Stallings, has secured options on the services of eight or nine class AA stars and within a few days expects to have that number increased to fifteen. Regardless of the strike action of the fraternity, no other team has made such businesslike plans to provide with strikebreakers. The other teams will probably fall into line.

BOXERS REFUSE BID OF $60,000 FOR TEN ROUNDS

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Frenzied finance in boxing circles jumped into the limelight yesterday when two maulers refused an apparently bona fide offer of $60,000 for a ten round encounter. That bid was made Les Darcy and Mike Gibbons at a conference here, but it wasn't sufficiently enticing to close a match.

Harry Sherman, the Minneapolis promoter, offered the $60,000 at a conference with Darcy and Gibbons in the Hotel Planters. Sherman had a check for $10,000 ready to post as evidence of his ability to make good his proposition. It was a certified check, and John Harding vouched for its worth, a combination of securities that meant it was real money. But they couldn't come to an agreement.

Decision by Five Judges.

Sherman demanded that they box ten rounds to a decision to be rendered by five judges. The club was to select three arbiters and the fighters the remaining two. On the decision of the five judges 60 per cent of the money was to go to the winner and 40 per cent to the loser. Promoter Sherman asserted such a decision contest would be permissible under the Minnesota boxing law.

Darcy and Gibbons decided to postpone definite action until next Tuesday, when another meeting will be held in New York. The postponement was at the suggestion of Darcy, who has given his word to Promoter Brown of Madison Square garden that he will not engage in any matches before consulting Brown, for whom he has signed to meet Al McCoy in a ten round bout at the garden on March 5.

Gibbons Demands Real Money.

"This is a match of international importance," Gibbons said. "I do not intend to box Darcy unless I get what I think I am entitled to. I realize he is a tough fellow. I will not sign articles until I am assured I will get all the money the bout should be worth."

Mike took a short workout at the Arcade yesterday. He boxed with Brother Tom and intends to keep in shape for the pending match. Gibbons intends to leave for New York on Saturday. In the meantime he will work at the Arcade.

ROGERS DEFEATS LAUBEN, 50 TO 48

Peters Rogers gave the Mussey forces their first defeat in the Chicago Billiard league when he nosed out Walter Lauben, 50 to 48, in 101 innings at Bensinger's Monroe street room. Rogers after running two in the one hundredth inning missed the winning shot by a small margin. Lauben needed seven and starting with a cushion first bank around the table compiled a run of five before missing by a whisker. The balls were comparatively safe, but Rogers in trying a bank in the corner hit the object ball too full, but the cue ball kissed back into the corner and went out for a count on the red ball. Scores at the end of each tenth inning:

Rogers	10	18	26	26	28	33	36	39	42	49	50
Lauben	7	16	17	20	24	31	34	35	40	46	48

Graumann of the Dearborn room will play Tredick at Conklin's tonight.

Trailing 18 to 32 at the sixtieth inning, Daniels and Rahn staged one of the best finishes ever seen in a team tournament at Mussey's. They scored 17 points in seven innings and defeated Perry and Mack [40], 35 to 35 in sixty-seven innings.

In the three cushion tournament at Bensinger's Keith defeated Burmeister, 35 to 29.

George Moore of New York, who last week lost the three cushion title to Charles McCourt, has challenged again and deposited his forfeit with the Brunswick-Balke-Collender company. Jess Lean of Chicago and McCourt are billed for the next title contest.

Bob Lord of Adam's room defeated McAndless, 250 to 199, in the second block of their 15-2 match played at Petersen's Ashland avenue room and is leading, 500 to 397. The third block will be played at Adam's room tonight.

Mulihan won the rapid fire tournament at Petersen's. Sterer was second and Gambon third.

THREE CUSHION LEAGUE.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 7.—[Special.]—Pierre Maupome of Cleveland defeated Frank Jones of this city in a Three Cushion Billiard league game in fifty-nine innings, 50 to 37. Maupome had high run of 5, Jones 4.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 7.—[Special.]—Charles Ellis, representing Milwaukee, defeated Harry Cooler of this city, 50 to 18, in fifty-six innings. Cooler's high run was 3. Ellis had a 7 to his credit in addition to a run of six.

Butler House Swimmers Trim West Side Y. M. C. A.

Four swimmers from Butler house defeated the West Side Y. M. C. A. seniors in a dual meet in the "Y" tank last night, 34 to 16. Riley and Shaughnessey of the winners each won two events. Butler's juniors were beaten by the Y. M. C. A. youngsters, 20 to 15.

OUR HELPING HAND.

ONE of the most profitable and enjoyable ways of spending your spare time is to sit down and indite a missive to Voice of the People. Many, unfortunately, are ignorant of the basic rules governing this pastime. The Wake this morning offers a few timely suggestions which should prove of assistance to those unlearned in the art:

1. Get just as mad as possible, either at this paper as a whole, or at some part of it.

2. Hint broadly that the editors of this paper have been bought off.
3. Tell who you are, where you were born and why, and what a bearcat you always have been in matters of patriotism.
4. Mention Lincoln.
5. Assert that, in spite of your national sympathies, you will fight for Uncle Sam at the drop of the hat. (No one need know that you're 102 years old and minus a few legs and arms.)
6. If you're from the south, say so, three or four times.
7. Knock Germany, England, Austria, Japan, Russia, and "The Tribune," but never France. It isn't done.

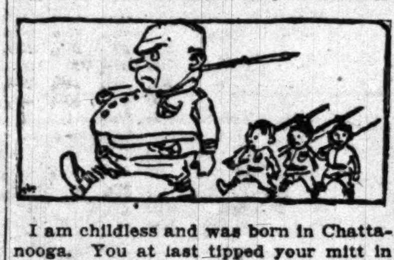
Following is a model form of letter that embraces nearly everything and will make you feel good all over when you see it in print:

Chicago, Feb. 7.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—I am a Southerner and have been a subscriber of THE TRIBUNE for 150 years. I was born in Germany, but became a citizen of the United States in 1849. Every sane man feels the same way. Until yesterday, I had always considered THE TRIBUNE what it claimed to be—The World's Greatest Newspaper. But when I read your editorial yesterday morning on Sailfishing off Palm Beach, I saw in a moment that you had been bought off by Norway. Nobody but a contemptible cur could have written such an editorial. None but a crooked newspaper, a subsidized newspaper, could have printed it. You poor crooks!

Let us not get the issues confused. I was born in Dixie. What has the Kaiser ever done to us that we should pick on him? Remember, the British are our own flesh and blood.

If it comes to actual hostilities between ourselves and Germany, not only will I go to the front myself, provided I can find somebody to look after the office, but I will also send my three sons.



I am childless and was born in Chattanooga. You at last tipped your mitt in that editorial and from now on, when your paper comes to the house, I will read it and then throw it away.

Remember what Lincoln said!

I have taken an active part in every war this national has been in during the last four years.

You're a bunch of thugs.

PATRICK TALLIAFERRO SCHULTZ.

Woods and Waters

By LARRY ST. JOHN.

OUR OWN VOX POP.

Send us a short letter on Woods and Waters topics: fish, fishing, or fishermen; dogs, shooting, game laws, etc.

CHICAGO.—[To the Editor.]—Perhaps some of your readers who can obtain minnows now and find them scarce later on would like to preserve them alive. If so, let them take a lard pail or powder can and put in the minnows. Don't overcrowd, but use several receptacles if necessary. Punch holes in the sides of the cans, fasten lids tightly, and then anchor them safely in the stream.

Avoid putting the cans near mud banks, and the minnows will be in good condition in April or later. The only danger is high water throwing a log against the cans, but by having several of them anchored in different parts of the stream one will be reasonably certain to have live bait in the spring.

We have a fish and game club, with 1,200 members, at Springfield, O., and have our own warden, who has a motorcycle and always subject to call. Twice a year we stock our streams with small mouth and large mouth black bass, and it seems to me that such a club would be a good plan in most of the towns in the middle west.

We use crawfish quite a bit for bait, and find them successful. Two men go out at night for craws. One carries a flashlight and picks them up, while the other carries two minnow buckets, one for soft shells and the other for "peelers," or the craws that will shed before morning. When sufficient are caught we plant them in the same stream we caught them in, picking them up the next morning. In very hot weather we place a piece of ice on top of the buckets when we start for the fishing grounds.

AWARD 'TRIBUNE' PRIZES TONIGHT

The committee on parks, playgrounds, and beaches yesterday decided to distribute the buttons and medals awarded in THE TRIBUNE skating tourney at the Hamlin playground, Sixteenth street and Hamlin avenue, tomorrow night. Weather permitting, there will be races for boys and girls under and over 10 years of age. A special prize will be awarded to the girl who has the best costume.

Skating Races Tonight.

A class C race for amateurs will be staged at the White City artificial ice rink tomorrow night, under the auspices of the Western Skating association. There will be two heats at half a mile and a final at one mile, starting at 8 o'clock. A speedy field is looked for.

SWEDES VICTORS IN MAT COMBATS

Swedish-American A. C. wrestlers came to the front in the International Gymnastic union contests at Pilsen Sokol hall last night, qualifying all four men who will compete in the semi-finals of the 145 pound senior class on Sunday. The best bout in the division was that in which Eric Piersen gained a fall from Fred Brusenbach in 19:50 after 10:00 and 5:00 draws. Spyros Vorres, national A. A. U. 125 pound champion, came through easily in his 135 pound bout.

Charges of professionalism were filed against William Hallas, a Greek Olympic club teammate of Vorres, and he was barred. Tonight's bouts will be at Bowman hall, Fifty-ninth and Aberdeen streets. Summaries:

BAR POST-GRADS FROM COMPETING IN PREP SPORTS

BY OTTO ENGEL.

Any high school student who has completed his four year course entitling him to a diploma will not be eligible for athletic competition. This ruling was made at a meeting of the board of athletic control yesterday in answer to the Williams case at Hyde Park.

Williams, star player of the Hyde Park High school basketball lightweights, who had been given to understand by Principal Loomis that he would be able to play after he received his diploma the first of this month, now will not be able to compete, although he is taking post-graduate work. Similar cases have come up in the past and each time President Steffens has ruled the question out of order, although the constitution does not cover that point definitely.

Frame Definite Rule.

Because there might be further trouble over the eligibility of students who have been given their diplomas and decide to remain for post-graduate work the board instructed President Steffens and Secretary Ray to see Superintendent of Schools Shoop regarding a clearer interpretation.

Other business transacted was as follows:

Kalbus of Crane will be reinstated as a member of the basketball team if in the opinion of the principal his case justifies such action. Kalbus played one game with an outside team, violating the rules.

Guard Football Schedule.

The football committee was instructed to formulate a plan to prevent a school from dropping out after the schedule had been made.

The University of Chicago, Northwestern university, and the Second regiment armory were considered as the scene of the next track meet. The place offering the best inducements will be awarded the contests.

Lake Forest Academy Wins in Overtime, 25-17

After a peppery contest in which neither side was ahead more than one basket, Lake Forest and Evanston academy tied, 17 to 17. The referee called an extra five minutes of play, in which Lake Forest picked up eight points and won, 25 to 17. Bergen starred for Lake Forest and Capt. Johnson for Evanston.

To Avoid Dandruff
You do not want a slow treatment for itching scalp when hair is falling and the dandruff germ is killing the hair roots. Delay means—no hair.
Get, at any drug store, a [illegible] zemo for 25c or $1.00 for extra large size. Use as directed, for it does the work quickly. It kills the dandruff germ, nourishes the hair roots and immediately stops itching scalp. It is pure, reliable, antiseptic liquid, is not greasy, is easy to use and will not stain. Soaps and shampoos are harmful, as they contain alkali. The best thing to use for scalp irritation is zemo, for it is safe and inexpensive.

MONEY MARKET GROWS FIRMER ON WAR CRISIS

Larger Local Banks Lift the Minimum Rates—Borrowings Small.

A firmer condition has developed in the local money market and at some of the banks there has been an advance in the minimum rate from 3½ to 4 per cent. While this is not true of all the institutions, it is of the larger commercial banks. Commercial paper is quoted at 4 per cent, whereas a few days ago 3½ per cent was taken. Offerings, however, are not large. Apparently borrowers are awaiting events.

Call loans on new business have been advanced ½ per cent. A few days ago a six months' loan was made on collateral at 3½ per cent. Yesterday one of the banks made a six months' loan on collateral at 4½ per cent.

The possibility of borrowings by the government and some changes in conditions that will be created by a declaration of war between Germany and this country are responsible factors in the firmness of money sentiment at this time.

Repudiates Use of Name.

H. W. Ford, president and general manager of the Saxon Motor Car corporation, sends to THE TRIBUNE, under date of Feb. 6, 1917, the following:

"It has come to my attention that my name was used in connection with the advertising of stock in a company known as the Foreign Relations corporation, it being stated that I was a director of this company. I wish to state that my name was used in this matter without my knowledge or consent, and that I have not now and have never had any stock or interest whatever in this proposition, and do not expect to have any."

Mr. Ford is the second person to write THE TRIBUNE that the use of his name was unauthorized in connection with the advertising of the corporation named.

Sinclair Oil Bond Conversion.

It is announced that of the $20,000,000 6 per cent convertible bonds of the Sinclair Oil and Refining company, which were called for payment on May 1 next, $18,000,000 have already been converted into stock. The right to convert expires today, although no further conversions are possible.

With the conversion and payment of the bonds, the company will have 1,000,000 shares of stock of no par value outstanding. Earnings for the fiscal year to end March 31 next are estimated at $13 per share. The annual dividend rate is $5 per share.

Ohio Cities Gas Company.

Net earnings of the Ohio Cities Gas company for December are unofficially stated to have been $425,000, while net for January is estimated to have been in excess of $800,000. The company has just drilled in a 300 barrel well on its West Virginia property and other wells are expected to come in soon.

It is expected a special meeting of the board will be held, probably next Wednesday, when it is possible action will be taken on the declaration of a second 5 per cent dividend in common stock on the common stock. It is understood the company has options on additional oil producing properties in Oklahoma and Kansas and some announcement may be made in regard to further expansion of the holdings of the company in the mid-continent field.

Surface Lines Election.

The constituent companies of the Chicago Surface lines have reëlecetd the following members of the board of operation of the Chicago Surface lines: Henry A. Blair, Charles C. Asit, Wallace Heckman, and John M. Roach, representing the Chicago Railways company, and L. A. Busby, H. B. Riley, and F. O. Wetmore, representing the Chicago City railway.

At a meeting of the board the following officers were elected:

Chairman of the board, Henry A. Blair; president, L. A. Busby, secretary and assistant treasurer, F. D. Hoffmann; treasurer, M. B. Orde; assistant secretary, Frank L. Hupp; general auditor, John J. Duck; general counsel, W. W. Gurley.

Chicago Securities.

Chicago stocks were irregular, but in somewhat better tone. Union Carbide and Chicago City and Connecting Railways preferred were up 2 points. Swift & Co. was steady. Booth Fisheries common was up 1 point, while Stewart-Warner lost 1½ points at 85½.

Railroad Earnings.

Net earnings of ninety-nine of the larger railroads in the United States in December were $165,887,000, an increase of $15,000,000 over December, 1915. The aggregate net earnings were $50,847,000, against $50,566,000, making the net earnings per mile of line $384, as against $268 for the previous year.

TEXAS PACIFIC—Fourth week January gross increased $69,830; from Jan. 1 gross increased $206,183.

TOLEDO, ST. LOUIS AND WESTERN—from Jan. 1 gross increased $10,413.

GREAT NORTHERN—December operating revenues decreased $448,802; operating income decreased $1,082,002; from July 1 operating revenues increased $1,918,924; operating income decreased $3,068,061.

Money and Exchange.

Money rates in Chicago steady at 3½@4 per cent on collateral, 3½ per cent on commercial paper, and 4@4½ per cent over the counter. New York exchange, 10@5c discount. Chicago bank clearings, $74,950,229.

NEWS OF THE FINANCIAL WORLD

Dow Jones & Co. announce that, having wired the best informed sources in Washington concerning the government's probable policy with reference to steel companies, the following was received: "It is improbable that the government will take over steel plants and put Schwab out. The procedure likely to be followed will provide for government control, but not interference with the personnel or disturbance of profits. The same procedure will undoubtedly apply also to shipbuilding plants."

The head of one of the leading New York brokerage houses says the amount of stocks taken out of the market in the last two weeks has been unprecedented. The conviction is entertained among some of the active houses that the period of preparedness which is anticipated will offset, in large part, the loss of export traffic.

Officials of the Standard Oil company of New York deny the story that the capital is to be increased from $75,000,000 to $100,000,000 through the distribution of a 33 1-3 per cent stock dividend. It is pointed out that the present world affairs, especially as they relate to shipping conditions, make for caution.

Gross business of the F. W. Woolworth company in 1916 amounted to $87,089,272. After payment of preferred dividend there was a balance of $7,785,945, being equal to 15.57 per cent on the $50,000,000 common stock against 13.18 per cent the previous year. The surplus stands at $3,792,319.

The Pullman company has elected J. A. Spoor a director to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Gov. Lowden. L. S. Taylor was elected controller and A. A. Cummins was elected treasurer, succeeding Mr. Taylor.

Gold to the amount of $500,000 was received in New York from Canada.

Subscriptions to the new stock of the Sapulpa Refining company will be open to stockholders of record today. They will have the privilege of subscribing to 100,000 shares of new stock to the extent of 50 per cent of their holdings at $9 a share.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light company three directors will be elected and action taken upon a proposition involving the purchase of property and franchises of other utilities.

Gross earnings of the Central Union Telephone company for December were $789,647, an increase of $101,656, compared with the previous year. For the full year 1916 the operating income was $1,487,591, an incrase of $84,512.

Net profits of the Allis-Chalmers company for the year ended Dec. 31, 1916, are reported to have been $3,165,020, an increase of $2,086,668 over the previous year. The figures equal 8.86 per cent of the common stock.

A group of directors of the Continental and Commercial National bank yesterday presented to the bank a large oil portrait of the president of the institution, George M. Reynolds.

For the year ended Dec. 31, 1916, earnings of the United Cigar Manufacturers company were equal to 5.82 per cent on the common stock after preferred dividends.

The Nevada Consolidated Copper company for the quarter ended Dec. 31 showed a surplus of $1,262,597, against $1,625,348 the previous quarter.

According to Wall street the Central Leather company control 75 or 80 per cent of the sole leather trade in the United States.

BOSTON STOCK QUOTATIONS.

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 7.—[Special.]—After a period of early uncertainty prices strengthened on the local board, with American Zinc, Butte and Superior, Copper Range, Tamarack, and the coal stocks active and strong. The market turned dull and rather heavy in the later dealings. Most issues closed at fractional recessions. Atlantic-Gulf was particularly heavy, losing 3 points. Alaska Gold made a new low at 7. Swift was steady at 136½. Call money ruled at 3@3½ per cent; time loans, short date, 3½@4 per cent; time loans, six months, 3¾@4 per cent; time loans, year, 4¼@4½ per cent.

COFFEE.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—There was a renewal of trade selling in the market for coffee futures here today and prices made new low ground and movement. The opening was to 5 points under small offerings in the absence of any important support and reports that some of the firm offers from Brazil late yesterday were easier. Part of the selling was supposed to be against purchases in the cost and freight market, and after opening at about 8.37c, May contracts eased off to 8.23c in the late trading. The close was at a net decline of 12@16 points, the lowest point of the day. Sales were estimated at 58,000 bags. February, 8.09c; March, 8.14c; April, 8.18c; May, 8.22c; June, 8.25c; July, 8.28c; August, 8.31c; September, 8.34c; October, 8.38c; November, 8.42c; December, 8.45c; January, 8.49c. Spot coffee unchanged; Rio 7s, 10c; Santos 4s, 10½c; bids made at declines late yesterday were declined by Brazilian shippers and the asking prices for Santos 4s ranged from about 9.75@10.10c American credits today, with offers on London credits about 20 points above these figures. Undescribed Santos 3s and 4s were offered at 10c London credits. The official cables reported in advance of 50 reis in Santos futures, with the Rio market unchanged. Santos cleared 28,000 bags for New York. Brazilian port receipts, 32,000 bags; Jundiahy, 11,000 bags.

DRY GOODS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Cotton goods steadier today, with trading more active in finished goods at lower prices. Yarsn were steadier. Wool goods firm, and silks quiet. Knit goods were firm.

SUGAR.

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—SUGAR—Following prices were quoted by the wholesale dealers per 100 lbs: Cut loaf, H. & E., $8.45; powdered, standard, $7.45; standard cane granulated, $7.25; beet granulated, $7.65; extra C, $6.95; canary, $6.55.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—SUGAR—The local market for raw sugar was quieter today, and while there were no sales definitely reported the market presented a very firm undertone. Refiners were in the market for prompt shipment sugars at 3⅝c cost and freight, but found no offerings, although March shipment was offered at 3 15-16c cost and freight, and April at 3⅞c, without attracting any attention. It was rumored that Porto Rico sugars were sold to a local refiner for February shipment at equal to 4.77c for centrifugal, but no confirmation could be received. The close was firm at 3⅝c for Cubas cost and freight, equal to 4.89c for centrifugal and 4.02c for molasses. In refined labor conditions were still unsettled, and it was said that refiners were behind in deliveries. New business was light and prices were unchanged at 6.75c for fine granulated. In sugar futures trading was only moderately active, with operators inclined to watch developments. The undertone was firm, in sympathy with the spot market, and prices at the close showed gains of 1@4 points on covering and a little buying by trade interests. Sales were 8,250 tons. March sold from 3.91@3.95c, closing 3.94c; May, 3.92@3.94c, closing 3.93c; July, 3.97c, closing 3.98c; September, 4.00@4.02c, closing 4.02c.

In Foreign Stock Markets.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—The stock market maintained a good tone today although consols sagged further on small sales made in order to invest in the war loan. Home rails and several industrials improved on provincial buying and Russian mines and oils were firm, but neutral stocks closed easy. American securities declined slightly at the opening but improved later and closed steady. Bar silver, 37½d per ounce. Money, 4⅜ per cent. Discount rates, short bills, 5@5⅛ per cent; three months, 5@5¼ per cent.

PARIS, Feb. 7.—Trading was quiet on the bourse today. Rentes, 62 francs 25 centimes. Exchange on London, 27 francs 81½ centimes. Five per cent loan, 87 francs 60 centimes.

Non-Speculative Farm Mortgages

In these uncertain times the farm mortgage offers an ideal investment to those investors who are anxious to safeguard their funds and at the same time receive a maximum interest return. Farm mortgages are not subject to the vagaries of the stock or bond market. Large investors, especially insurance companies, are purchasing all the good farm mortgages they can secure.

Each mortgage we offer has its independent productive farm as security. During our 32 years' experience of lending money to the American Farmer we have not permitted a single client to suffer loss. Send for free booklets on the subject.

Our February List Contains Loans as Small as $350.

Western Pacific Railway Company
REORGANIZATION
Call for Payment of Final Installment of Purchase Price of New Bonds.

To the Depositors under the Plan and Agreement for Reorganization of the Western Pacific Railway Company dated December 15, 1915, who have subscribed for the New Bonds referred to in said Plan and who have made payment of 20% of the Purchase Price of said Bonds, and their transferees.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the balance of the purchase price of the New Bonds subscribed for by the above mentioned Depositors, namely 80% of the full purchase price of said bonds, will be payable June 20th, 1917, at the office of the Equitable Trust Company of New York, 37 Wall Street, New York City, or at the office of the First Federal Trust Company, 1 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, California. The purchase price of the New Bonds subscribed for is 90 and accrued interest. The balance due June 20th, 1917, on the subscriptions of said Depositors after making interest adjustment by charging accrued interest on bonds from March 1st, 1917, the date from which said bonds will bear interest, to June 20th, 1917, and allowing interest at the coupon rate upon the first installment from June 20th, 1916, the date on which such installment was made payable, to June 20th, 1917, is at the rate of $725.31 on each $1,000 face value of New Bonds represented by the "Installment Subscription Receipts and Certificates." Upon payment in full of the balance of the subscriptions as above provided and surrender of "Installment Subscription Receipts and Certificates," the new securities called for by said "Installment Subscription Receipts and Certificates" (or the balance thereof, in case partial delivery has theretofore been made), will be delivered as soon thereafter as possible.

Any depositor may pay his subscription in full on or before (but not after) February 15th, 1917, in which case the amount payable after making interest adjustment by charging accrued interest on the bonds from September 1st, 1916, the date from which said bonds will bear interest, to Feb. 15th, 1917, and allowing interest at the coupon rate on the first installment from June 20, 1916, to February 15, 1917, will be $736.42 for each $1,000 face value of New Bonds subscribed for. In case this option is exercised payments will be accepted by either of the above Trust Companies on or before February 15th, but not thereafter.

Payments in either case must be accompanied by "Installment Subscription Receipts and Certificates" for surrender and cancellation.

For the Western Pacific Railroad Company.

BY MARK WATSON.

New York, Feb. 7.—[Special.]—The war boom which a few of the issues on the stock market are trying to start is having a hard time getting under way. The effect is noticeable on a handful of stocks in companies whose business is peculiarly war business, but the rest of the market halts, and many of the stocks decline.

Even several quondam war babies fail to be inspired and continue weak. Striking examples today were Industrial Alcohol and Crucible Steel, which declined even more than the general market. Steel, setting the pace for the market as a whole, lost 1¼ points, closing weak.

The losses were extended to the rails, whose condition in the market at present is not at all encouraging. Their lack of popularity seems to be due to the advancing costs, which all the roads are meeting, and the total inability displayed by most of them in their efforts to continue the great gains in gross revenue. The information from Washington is not considered promising of better arrangements.

Canadian Pacific Weak.

Of all the roads Canadian Pacific was today by far the weakest, showing a gross decline of 6½ points, from which there was a fractional rally.

This is the first time since 1915 that this premier railway stock of the Dominion has sold below 149. The road's great business at present is dependent, of course, on the maintenance of rail and water service to Europe. The developments of the last forty-eight hours, with the enormous loss of tonnage sustained by Great Britain's merchant marine, have not been conducive to excessive confidence in the surety of this water service east of Newfoundland.

Nervousness on Curb.

On the curb there was marked nervousness in most of the issues, but a considerable boom in the securities put out by companies most likely to receive war department orders in the event of serious developments.

Curtiss Aeroplane, for example, bounded from 21 to 25 and Wright-Martin was stronger. Marlin, which rose from 83 to 97 yesterday, moved on to 102. The oil stocks were somewhat steadier.

Meantime in the foreign exchange market there was surprising activity, principally in German exchange, which made the sharpest advance in months. Marks were weak yesterday, at 67⅜ for four marks, but today advanced swiftly to 70. Austrian kronen jumped from 10.70 to 11.15 cents. Italian exchange also improved, the rate advancing from 7.11 to the dollar to 7.02 to the American dollar. The explanations advanced varied from withdrawals by the foreign banks of their deposits in America, all the way to withdrawals by individuals for the relief of relatives abroad.

Bonds Are Irregular.

International bonds were again irregular on the new low record made by United Kingdom 5½s of 1921. United States governments also moved uncertainly, the 4s advancing ½ per cent and Panama 3s declining that much.

Mercantile paper, 4. Sterling: Sixty day bills, $4.72½; commercial 60 day bills on banks, $4.72½; commercial 60 day bills, $4.72¼; demand, $4.75½; cable, 4.76 7-16. Francs: Demand, $5.84½; cables, $5.83½. Marks: Demand, 69c; cables, 70c. Kronen: Demand, $10.80; cables, $11.00. Guilders: Demand, 40 11-16c; cables, 40¾c. Lires: Demand, $7.10; cables, $7.07. Rubles: Demand, 28¼c; cables, 29c. Bar silver, 77⅛c. Mexican dollars, 59⅞c. Government bonds irregular. Railroad bonds irregular. Time loans easy; 60 days, 3½@4; 90 days and six months, 3¾@4. Call money steady; high, 2½; low, 2¼; ruling rate, 2¼; last loan, 2½; closing bid, 2¼; offered at 2½.

REALTY BOARD INDORSES NEW VALUATION PLAN

Chicago Body Votes, 48 to 16, in Favor of Bond Issue Loan Scheme.

Real Estate Transfers.

Real estate transfers filed for record yesterday totaled 209, of which 163 were in the city and 46 outside, including 17 under the Torrens system. Transfers were as follows:

Rogers Park	2	Worth	4
Jefferson	23	Thornton	1
Lake	24	North town	3
West town	53	Hyde Park	30
New Trier	5	Calumet	4
Proviso	3	Stickney	1
Lyons	2	Bloom	1
Lake View	17	Bremen	1
South town	7	Niles	2
Cicero	14	Norwood Park	2
Leyden	2	Lemont	1
Miscellaneous	1	Ridgeville	6

Two important transactions in South Wabash avenue property and the adoption by the Chicago real estate board at its monthly meeting yesterday of the plan for its valuation committee to make valuations in connection with bond issue loans were the most important features in a real estate way yesterday. The action of the board was not taken without a spirited discussion in which Harry Goldstine, chairman of the committee; L. M. Smith, R. D. Hill, B. V. Kanaley, and others favored the plan, while George S. Eddy, Joseph Donnersberger, Thad H. Howe, and others earnestly opposed. The vote was 48 to 16.

A special committee, of which Walter Mills is chairman, made a report regarding the school fund lands in Austin comprising a tract of about 640 acres, between Madison and Twelfth streets and east of Fifty-second avenue. The recommendation was made that the board sell all of the property except business frontage on Madison and Harrison streets, which, in the opinion of the committee, should be leased under long term leases.

Wabash Avenue Deal.

A transaction of unique interest is the purchase by Horace L. Brand, editor of the Staats-Zeitung, from Mrs. Sarah A. Spring of Waukegan of the property at 1446-48 South Wabash avenue, lot 60x170 feet, east front, with old brick improvements. What gives to the transaction this unusual interest is the fact the property has been in the families of Giles and Edward Spring about seventy-five years, and is the last lot held by the family in the Giles H. Spring Wabash avenue subdivision, and is a part of the tract of 10.8 acres purchased by the Springs in 1841 for $1,039, or at the rate of less than $100 an acre. It was subdivided in 1854.

St. Luke's hospital, the Coliseum, the Central and Western Furniture buildings, and many other large business buildings have been erected on this subdivision, which extends from State street to Lake Michigan.

It is interesting to note that there have been sales and leases on Wabash and Michigan avenue in this subdivision as high as $2,400 a front foot, or over $570,000 an acre, an increase of over 5,700 per cent over the price paid by Giles Spring in 1841. The consideration in the sale to Mr. Brand is not disclosed, but the transfer is subject to an incumbrance of $25,000. Pace & Co. were the brokers.

It is said that negotiations are pending for the construction of an eight story concrete building for a prospective tenant, the cost of which is estimated at about $140,000.

Green Estate Sells.

The other Wabash avenue transaction was the sale by the estate of Hetty H. R. Green to Henry Schoelkopf of the fee at 534-36 South Wabash, lot 40x165 feet, east front, 80 feet north of Harrison street, for $140,000. The transaction merges the fee and leasehold interest, as the property is under ninety-nine years' lease to Mr. Schoelkopf at a graded rent of $6,500 to $10,000 a year, the latter being for the last sixty-four years of the term. Willis & Frankenstein negotiated both the lease and sale.

A big south side flat deal made a matter of record was the sale by Mrs. Eva B. Crowe to David Harris of the thirty-six apartment building of four and five rooms, having a gross annual rental of about $16,000, in Prairie avenue 149 feet north of Fifty-ninth street. It occupies a lot 150x178 feet, west front, and while a nominal consideration is given, subject to an incumbrance of $62,500, the actual price is said to have been about $95,000.

Grand Boulevard Trade.

In this connection the residence property in Grand boulevard 250 feet south of Forty-seventh street, lot 50x150 feet, east front, improved with a fifteen room stone front dwelling, was conveyed by E. I. Bloom to Mrs. Rose H. Harris, who then conveyed to Mrs. Crowe, the consideration being nominal, but said to have been $35,000, subject to an incumbrance of $10,000. Hugo Ash was the broker.

The high grade apartment property at 4822-24 Grand boulevard, with 51x135 feet of ground, east front, has been conveyed by C. A. Winston to Jay Webb for an expressed consideration of $50,000, subject to an incumbrance of $25,000.

The apartment property at the northwest corner of Maplewood and Leland avenues, lot 50x125 feet, has been conveyed by Olive J. Weymouth to Reinhardt Hoppe, consideration nominal, subject to an incumbrance of $37,375.

The property at the northwest corner of Sixty-third street and Western avenue, lot 99.6x125 feet, with store, flat, and office improvements, has been conveyed by W. F. Thomas, who took title to it a few months ago, to Emma S. Schmidt for a stated consideration of $21,500, subject to an incumbrance of $114,625.

The first weekly luncheon under the administration of President Surghnor will be held at the Hotel La Salle today, the speaker being Charles L. Hutchinson, vice president of the Corn Exchange National bank. A number of other bankers will be guests of the board.

Capital Traction.

W. V. W., Janesville, Wis.—The Capital Traction company has outstanding $12,000,000 of one class stock and $5,611,000 of first mortgage bonds. Gross earnings increased steadily to 1913. In 1914 and 1915 decreases were shown, but 1916 brought an improvement, gross being nearly back to the 1913 figure. Expenses increased, however, and net in 1916 was only $1,051,840, being $2,870 less than in 1915. Interest and a 5 per cent dividend took all but $36,176 of the earnings. Presumably allowance for depreciation is made in the item of operating expenses. The bonded debt is low, giving the stock a large equity, but it is not a conservative investment and with net earnings shrinking is not attractive.

Brief Answers.

W. F.—Aurora, Elgin and Chicago preferred stock is quoted nominally at 19 bid, 21 asked, common at 10 bid. No quotation is found on Spokane and Inland Empire. The latter has not earned fixed charges in the last six years and the annual deficit is increasing.

J. B. D.—The stock of the Interborough Metropolitan was exchanged share for share in 1915 for stock of the Interborough Consolidated. The latter has been earning its preferred dividend with a narrow margin of safety. The common stock is almost purely speculative at present.

G. W. M.—The preferred stock of the St. Paul is entitled to 7 per cent out of each year's earnings before common has any dividend. After both classes of stock have received 7 per cent both share equally in any further distribution.

O. E. S.—The Globe Tire company has issued no complete reports of its finances.

Lower prices were made in all branches of the live stock trade at Chicago yesterday, cattle closing 15@25c off, while hogs were 10c lower and lambs 10@15c down. Curtailment of the shipping demand, because of the difficulty in getting cars was largely responsible for the weakness, as arrivals were not large.

Receipts of cattle were posted at 17,000 head. Steers topped at $12.20, with the bulk at $9.50@11.35. Particular difficulty was experienced in disposing of plain, light cattle, which comprised the bulk of the supply, and were primarily dependent upon shipping orders for clearance. Calves closed 25c lower.

Hogs opened steady, but declined 10c after the first round. Receipts were 49,000 head. Tops made $12.50 and the bulk $12.10@12.40.

Sheep Steady; Lambs Drop.

Sheep and yearlings held without material change, but lambs suffered a loss. Latter topped at $14.35, while western wethers made $11.50 and ewes sold up to $11.00. Receipts were 18,000 head.

COTTON.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—The cotton market showed continued nervousness and irregularity today, with trading comparatively quiet. May contracts sold up from 15.50c to 15.77c, declined to 15.57c, and closed at 15.52c, with the general list closing very steady net 4 points lower to 13 points higher. New crop months were relatively steady during the entire day. Trading was quiet during the entire day, with comparatively small orders responsible for most of the price movements. The few advices received here from the southern spot markets indicated no change in the situation, and a little southern selling here was attributed to liquidation of hedges against sales of spots in the south. The report of the census bureau indicated that 583,710 bales of bleached cotton fiber, including linters and hull fiber, had been used in the manufacture of explosives in this country for the year 1916, compared with 244,003 in 1915. The consumption for the three months ended Dec. 31 amounted to 162,015 bales. Exports today were 8,128 bales, making 3,813,124 so far this season. Port receipts, 10,565 bales. United States port stocks, 1,891,293 bales. Futures:

NEW ORLEANS, La., Feb. 7.—Cotton had its periods of steadiness today, and at one time bulged sharply, but on the whole it was a small and tame affair, with the trade patiently waiting on international developments. The net change was a rise of 2 to 14 points. Futures:

RECEIVER'S SALE

By order of the court, the Fletcher Savings & Trust Company, as receiver, will, on Wednesday, February 14, sell at Receiver's Sale the plant of the

INDIANAPOLIS FOUNDRY CO.

(Indianapolis, Ind.)

The property includes about 6 acres of ground, with substantial brick buildings containing 155,000 square feet of floor space. Excellent switching facilities.

A Going Concern— Operating at A Profit

The business of the Indianapolis Foundry Company has been established for 30 years. It is a going concern and is now operating at a profit, although utilizing at this time only 50% of the plant's capacity.

Capacity of plant from 10,000 to 15,000 tons of castings annually, with present equipment. Now making light and medium gray-iron and semi-steel castings to order. Fully equipped for dry-sand cylinder work. One-third of present output now going to two of the best known concerns in the automobile industry.

This is an unusual opportunity, brought about by conditions which, when understood, will be appreciated. We will gladly send further details on request.

OUR partial payment plan of buying standard securities is designed for investors, not for speculators.

With an investor, security of the principal is more important than the interest or dividend yield.

An investor buys conservative securities, holds them and derives his profit from the dividends rather than by selling to take advantage of slight fluctuations in value.

We will be glad to assist investors who would rather open an account now and pay for their securities monthly than accumulate the funds to make the purchase outright.

MAY WEAKNESS CARRIES WHEAT FUTURES LOWER

Break in Near Delivery Due to Loss of Ships and Poor Export Outlook.

Wheat futures were unsettled most of the session yesterday, finally developing pronounced weakness. May was under greatest pressure and closed 3⅝c lower for the day. At one time it was nearly 6c under the previous resting spot. Distant deliveries finished ⅛@1c lower. Many of the larger houses were selling in the latter part of the session, while support continued to come largely from shorts. The trade was much affected by the heavy loss of ocean tonnage in the last few days, due to submarine activity, and realized that the difficulty in transporting grain to Europe will be materially increased by the steady destruction of vessels.

There was little or no export demand, the only business reported being 100,000 bu from one of the outside markets. Eastern roads are tied up and grain already purchased is moving to the seaboard slowly. Clearances of wheat and flour were again moderate at 426,000 bu and compared with 1,338,0.. bu a year ago.

Crop Advices Unfavorable.

New crop months were relatively firmer than the May, as the latter is most affected by the export situation, while the distant futures were aided by the unfavorable crop advices. There was good buying of both July and September, based on the poor crop outlook abroad and delicate condition of the plant in western and southwestern sections of our winter wheat country. General interest in the market was light and the trade was largely professional. Investors are held in check by the unsettled political conditions.

A better milling demand for cash wheat was reported and stocks in the hands of millers are reported unusually small for this time of the year. Bad weather and railroad embargoes are holding back receipts. Primary markets yesterday received 720,000 bu, compared with 1,016,000 bu a year ago. Winnipeg receipts were 137 cars, against 28 a year ago.

Corn Action Erratic.

Corn had an erratic session, but ruled higher most of the day and finished fractionally better than the previous close. Active buying by several local traders caused a sharp bulge, but this in turn brought on free selling and prices soon reacted. Much of the selling in the latter part of the session was credited to Patten, while the late break in wheat also had a depressing influence. No export demand for corn was reported and the submarine news was a factor. Shipments east are impossible at the present time, and no corn was cleared from the seaboard yesterday.

Country elevator men in Iowa are reported to be making every effort to ship corn to market before the spring thaw sets in, but the movement is seriously restricted by the car shortage and railroad embargoes. Argentine news was again bullish. Primary receipts totaled 918,000 bu, compared with 1,730,000 bu a year ago.

Oats Market Irregular.

Oats were irregular and closed ¼@⅜c lower for May and fractionally higher for the July. Free selling by Wagner was a late feature. There was considerable buying of May against selling of July by elevator interests. Clearances for the day were 292,000 bu. Primary receipts totaled 640,000 bu, against 837,000 bu a year ago. London oats were 6d higher. Broomhall says Argentina is not offering oats and that that the continent is outbidding the United Kingdom for American grades.

Provisions ruled strong early, but reacted later, and closed materially lower. Late selling was local in character and was induced by the break in wheat. Packers were credited with buying product early. Hog prices were weaker. Receipts at western markets were 151,500 head, compared with 162,400 a year ago. Liverpool spot lard was 1s 6d higher, bacon is higher, and hams unchanged. Local shipments of meats were 3,114,000 lbs, against 4,175,000 lbs a year ago, and lard shipments were 1,462,000 lbs, against 2,272,000 lbs last year.

Rye Prices in Advance.

Rye was 2c higher with No. 2 selling at $1.46. Receipts were 3 cars.

Barley ruled 1c higher. Malting was quoted $1.08@1.28 and sold $1.16@1.24; feed and mixing quotable $1.00@1.10, with sales at 98c@$1.10; screenings were quoted 40c@$1.00 and skimmings 70@75c, with former selling at 60@95c. Receipts, 15 cars.

Timothy seed was quiet. March, $5.65 bid and $6.00 asked; cash lots quoted $3.00@5.50. Clover seed ruled firm. Cash lots quoted $12.00@17.50 and spot prime, $18.65.

Flaxseed was 2½c higher, with cash quoted $2.82½@2.86½ nominal. Duluth was 2@2½c; Minneapolis, 2½c, and Winnipeg, 1½c higher, respectively.

POSLAM DOES SHORTEN TIME TO HEAL ECZEMA

When Eczema burns, itches, disfigures, Poslam instantly soothes the angry skin, splendidly exerts its healing power, not only to make the disease more endurable, but to cause it to grow less and less each day.

So effective is Poslam that a little of it will cover a large surface. It is its QUALITY, not the quantity of it, that does the work.

You do not have to wait in uncertainty for indications of improvement. It SHOWS at once.

Sold everywhere. For free sample write to Emergency Laboratories, 32 West 25th St., New York City.

ROACH'S
DANCING ACADEMY

The world's greatest and the acknowledged champion dancers and instructors. Prof. Roach and wife, assisted by 36 expert lady instructors and 4 gentlemen instructors. Call and convince yourselves of these facts.

The only dancing school in Chicago having a perfect and copyrighted method of teaching the graceful waltz, two-step, and all new dances. Come here first; save time and money.

Orchestra of 6, 36 expert lady instructors and 4 gentlemen to teach and dance with you 12 times the same evening, from 8 to 11, on the fox trot, one-step, waltz, two-step, two-two, London taps, and the New York Toddle. All for 50c, gents; ladies, 25c; 50c a couple.

Great success and great crowds coming here. Teaching over 300 to 1,200 people weekly. You will learn and get more here in one lesson from Prof. Roach than 12 elsewhere.

Classes Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday nights from 8 to 11, Sunday afternoon 2 to 5, and Sunday nights. Come up.

Private lessons given. Write for free catalogue. Prof. Roach and wife, 673 W. Madison-st., over Empire theater, one block east of Halsted.
